GETTING OFF ON THE RIGHT FOOT: When the Tornados kick off the 2017 season at Davidson it will mark their 11th campaign since joining the NCAA in 2007.

The meeting with the Wildcats not only marks the first between the two programs, but also marks the first time since becoming an NCAA program that Brevard has squared off against a team that currently makes up the Pioneer League.

Brevard is 2-8 in its season openers dating back to the 2007 campaign with the two victories coming against Edward Waters in 2009 and 2010. The 51-6 victory over Edward Waters to open the 2009 slate was the first of five straight for the Tornados, who finished 7-4 overall that season. Brevard managed to outscore its opposition 174-49 during the five-game winning streak.

RECLASSIFICATION TO NCAA DIII TRANSITION: On May 20, 2015, Brevard President Dr. David C. Joyce announced that the college would apply to reclassify its athletic teams from NCAA Division II to Division III. The process will begin with an exploratory year that commences in the fall of 2016, with the college expected to enter the provisional membership process in the 2017-2018 academic year.

The 2017 Tornado football roster consists of 76 players, including 51 freshman, and 19 players that returned from a season ago.

Of those 19 players, nine were starters over the course of the 2016 campaign. They include Ryan “Bubba” Craven (9), Brandon Crawford (10), Axel Easter (11), Tyler Gregory (2), Martigus Henley (9), Jarkevious Hopkins (11), Jason Nieradka (11), Justin Peck (10) and Chris Synenko (2). USA SOUTH ANNOUNCES 2017 PRESEASON POLL: Huntingdon College, under the direction of 14th-year Head Coach Mike Turk, and Maryville College, led by third-year Head Coach Shaun Hayes, tied atop the 2017 USA South Athletic Conference Preseason Football Coaches Poll. The Hawks and Scots shared last year's USA South championship but it was Huntingdon who earned the Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Division III Tournament by way of its 28-24 win over Maryville during regular season play. The Hawks fell in the first round of the playoffs and finished with a 9-2 overall record while Maryville completed the 2016 campaign with an 8-2 overall mark. The USA South championship was the second consecutive for Huntingdon and the third for Maryville in its history.

The USA South will welcome its newest football-playing member, Brevard College, this season. The Tornados are currently reclassifying from NCAA Division II status. Brevard is not included in this year's preseason poll as the Tornados are not eligible for championship honors this season.

MAPPING THE TORNADOS: The 2017 Brevard's roster consists primarily of individuals from three major states—North Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

The Tornados have 29 players hailing from North Carolina, while the second-most athletes come to Brevard from Georgia (19). Modzelle Atkins, who serves as Assistant Linebackers Coach and Equipment Manager, is the primary recruiter for southern and middle Georgia. A productive offensive player at Mitchell County High School in Camilla, Ga., playing for coach Dondrial Pinkins, Atkins became a versatile college player at Brevard College. With the Tornados, he played all four years and began his career on the offensive side of the ball, scoring a rushing touchdown in his freshman and sophomore seasons.

Assistant Head Coach Eric Gallon, who also works with the running backs, along with Special Teams Coordinator Luke Jaicks were also busy on the highways recruiting 16 Tornados from the Sunshine State.

Gallon, a standout football prospect from Kathleen High School in Lakeland, FL, went onto play for coach Bill Snyder at Kansas State from 1989-92. A three-year letter winner, Gallon served as team captain his senior season and rushed for 1,960 with seven 100-yard plus rushing performances. After college he spent time with the Bill Parcell-led New England Patriots.

Jaicks comes to Brevard from Scottsdale Community College and Southwestern Oklahoma State where he coached DBs and linebackers.

He was tapped as head coach for the Tropical Bowl, a premier FBS Division I level College Football All Star Game played in Daytona Beach, Fla., annually in mid-January.
