SATURDAY, JAN. 7, 2017 — 2 P.M.
PITTSBURGH, PA.
A.J. PALUMBO CENTER

OPENING TIP: Quick Hits

- Davidson is in its 38th season and has collected 417 wins in program history.
- The 'Cats are in their third year in the Atlantic 10 after a 21-year run in the SoCon.
- Davidson returns eight letterwinners and three of its five starters from last year's 11-19 team.
- Head coach Michele Savage is in her 7th year (92-112) and has an 0-3 record against Duquesne.

LAST GAME OUT AT FORDHAM, JAN. 4 ...

- In a game that featured six ties and seven lead changes, Fordham pulled away from Davidson in the fourth quarter, as the Wildcats dropped an 85-72 decision Wednesday on the road.
- Tied at 47-all in the third quarter, Fordham used a 9-2 run to cap off the quarter and then held off a charging Davidson team that got within five (67-62) in the last quarter by hitting 10-of-12 free throws in the final 2:30 to seal up the win.
- The Wildcats for the first time this year had four players reach double figures in points led by Justine Lyon's 22-point effort. The sophomore reached the 20-point mark for the second time in the past three games, hitting 8-of-16 shots and a career-best 6-of-8 from the charity stripe.
- Mackenzie Latt finished with 19 points, while Chloe Johnson (8 assists) and Kyla Roland had 14 and 10 points, respectively. The points were season highs for both players.

RECORD WATCH ...

- Latt is or will be ranked in the top-15 all-time in the record books during her third season. The junior has a chance at 1,000 points this year, needing 7 points to reach the milestone.
- She already ranks in the top-15 in career scoring average (9th, 13.3), blocks (10th, 68), field goals made (11th, 433) and attempted (13th, 951), and rebounds (12th, 547).

CONFERENCE STATS ...

- Despite being 0-2 in A-10 play, Davidson is shooting 46.9 percent and pouring in 70.5 points.
- Latt (21.0) and Lyon (20.0) are each averaging 20 points a game, while shooting at least 50 percent.
- Johnson is averaging 13 points and has a team-best 14 assists in the two games so far.

RANDOM NOTES ...

- Latt has scored in double figures in 57 of her 74 career games, including 12 times this year and is riding an 11-game streak of reaching double digits in points. Her career best is 12 straight.
- Latt has eight career 20-point outings, including this year's career-best 28 points at Charlotte.
- The junior has paced the team in rebounding 11 times, including the past five straight games.
- Latt has 16 career double-doubles (3 this year), with 11 of them coming as a freshman.
- Lyon's career-high 30 points at Charlotte, Dec. 21 where the most since Dakota Dukes had 31 at Wofford, March 2, 2014.
- The last six games combined, Latt is averaging a near double-double (21 ppg/9 rpg) and Lyon has averages of 18.5 points and 5.2 rebounds. Both players are shooting over 52 percent.
- Latt was named CollegeSportsMadness.com A-10 Player of the Week, Dec. 20.
- Davidson has a streak of 15 straight games with 10 or more offensive rebounds.
- It hauled in season-highs of 21 twice this year vs. Radford, Nov. 19 and at Charlotte, Dec. 21.
- This year Davidson has hit the 40-rebound mark eight times, 45 in a game three different times.
- The Wildcats have dished out a combined 93 assists the last six games (20, 19, 12, 15, 14, 13).

ALL-TIME SERIES VS. DUQUESNE ...

- The Wildcats and Dukes have played five times since first meeting Nov. 29, 2003.
- Davidson trails 4-1 in the series, including dropping a 77-62 decision last year at home.
- Davidson has four players score in double figures, led by Lyon's 12 points.

A LOOK AHEAD ...

- The 'Cats returns home for an Education Day game vs. UMass Thursday, Jan. 12, at 11:30 a.m.

Scouting the Opposition

- Five players scored in double-digits as Duquesne earned its first Atlantic 10 victory 76-68 at La Salle on Thursday night.
- Chassidy Omogrosso led all scorers with 18 points. Amadea Szamosi added 14, Julijana Vojinovic 13 and Kadri-Ann Lass and Nina Aho 11 for the Dukes.
- The Dukes had 20 assists on 28 field goals, led by Omogrosso's career-high tying six.
- Omogrosso is averaging a team-best 13.6 points.
- Szamosi is also in double figures at 11.7 points per game and a team-high 8.2 rebounds a game.
- The Dukes are averaging 62.1 points as a team, but allowing 66 a game.
- The Dukes are 3-4 at home this year.
- Duquesne is coming off a 28-6 season, while going 13-3 in league games a year ago which was good enough for a tie for first place.
- It returns 10 of its 16 letterwinners, including four starters.
- The Dukes were picked to finish second in the A-10 preseason poll with Dayton.

In the Last Meeting ... (Full Game Story)

DAVIDSON, N.C. — Davidson had four scorers reach double figures, but it was not enough to overcome a 20-win Duquesne squad as the Wildcats fell at home 77-62 Saturday afternoon during Atlantic 10 women's basketball in John M. Belk Arena.

Davidson saw its record fall to 10-14 overall and 4-7 in league play, while the Dukes won for the 21st time in their 23 games played this year. They also ran their A-10 record to 9-1.

Duquesne outscored the Wildcats 51-28 in the second and third quarters combined to pull away for its fifth straight win. It used a run of 14-5 in the second quarter and a 21-4 spurt behind four three-pointers to start the third quarter to put the game out of reach.

Justine Lyon led the way for Davidson with 12 points, canning a triple right before the final buzzer to reach double figures. She shot 3-of-5 from the floor and swished home all five of her season-best five free throws.

Fellow freshman Kyla Roland had a solid game off the bench with a season-best 10 points to go with two rebounds and two blocks.

Rounding out the quartet of double-figure scorers for the 'Cats were Hannah Early (11) and Mackenzie Latt (11). It was a tough shooting day though for the duo, as they went just a combined 9-for-28. Latt was 5-of-18 by herself. She just missed her third straight double-double though, pulling in a team-high nine rebounds.

The Dukes placed three in double figures, led by April Robinson's 14 points. Deva'Nyar Workman had a double-double on 12 points and 10 rebounds, while Amadea Szamosi chipped in 12 points to go with seven rebounds, three assists and three steals.

Duquesne had a 47-37 advantage on the glass, getting 14 offensive rebounds and outscored the Wildcats 32-20 in the paint.

Davidson recorded its second straight 18-assist game and tied its season-high with eight three-pointers, led by Early's three.

Despite falling behind 11-0 to start the game, the Wildcats tied things up to open the second quarter at 13-all on Kayla Seymour's three-ball. Duquesne pulled ahead by five twice over the next several minutes before another triple, this time by Kianna Speight, made it 25-20 with 4:23 left in the quarter. Duquesne answered with its 14-5 run to finish the quarter for a 39-25 lead at halftime.

Led by the freshmen pair of Lyon and Roland, Davidson was able to cut its deficit all the way down to the final score by winning the fourth quarter, 24-13. The two freshmen combined to score 16 of those points in the quarter.

GAME NOTES: This was the fifth meeting all-time between the two schools, with Duquesne leading 4-1 ... Alexandra Long has dished out 16 assists in her last four games and 30 in the past eight overall ... Early is now five three-pointers away from breaking the all-time mark of 222 set by Laura Murray ... it was the fourth time this year the Wildcats have had four players reach double-figures in points in the same game ... Latt has scored in double digits 20 times this year and 27 of her last 32 games overall.

HEAD COACH MICHELE SAVAGE

On May 28, 2010, Davidson College Athletic Director Jim Murphy announced the hiring of Michele Savage as the head coach for the Wildcat women's basketball program. She is the 11th head coach in the program's 38-year history as she enters her seventh season for the 2016-17 campaign, which has the Wildcats playing its second year in the Atlantic 10.

Quick Highlights...

- Named 2011-12 Southern Conference Coach of the Year by media and coaches after guiding Davidson to a 22-10 record and school-best 17-3 mark in SoCon play.
- Won 50th career game at Appalachian State, Feb. 9, 2013 with a 56-49 victory.
- Ranks third all-time with 79 wins and had 53 of those against SoCon foes, second-most.
- Led Davidson to the program's first regular season SoCon title in 2011-12.
- Coached arguably the best player in program history in Sophia Aleksandravicius, who was a two-time SoCon Player and Defender of the Year, the 2013 SoCon Athlete of the Year, a three-time All-SoCon First Team member and set seven all-time career records.
- Coached the all-time scoring leading Laura Murray, who was a three-time All-SoCon First Team.
- Registered back-to-back 22-win seasons in 2011-12 & 2012-13.
- Led Davidson to back-to-back trips to the SoCon Championship title game in 2013 & 2014.
- Led the Wildcats to back-to-back post-season trips with bids into the Women's NIT in 2012 & 2013.
- Led Davidson to a school-record 12 homes wins in 2011-12.
- Guided the 'Cats to a school-best eight-game road win streak and tying a school record with eight straight in the SoCon on the road all in 2013.
- Coached Davidson to the program's first-ever Atlantic 10 win, Jan. 18, 2015 with a win at Saint Louis.
- Has coached 13 SoCon academic honor roll players, four A-10 Commissioner's Honor Roll players, four All-SoCon players, four 1,000-point scorers, four all-league Freshmen Team members, one SoCon Freshman of the Year and Player of the year.
- Has coached three Rebecca E. Stimson Award winners, given to Davidson's top female athlete in recognition of outstanding dedication and contribution to intercollegiate athletics.

Davidson, Through the Years

Entering its second year in the Atlantic 10, Savage helped the Wildcats improve across the board with six more wins overall and four in league play. Davidson went 11-19 on the season, while finishing 12th with a 5-11 A-10 mark. The Wildcats ran off a season-high three-game win streak, including collecting a thrilling double-overtime win at High Point. In addition, they recorded the program's first two-game A-10 win streak, collecting victories at VCU on national television and then at home vs. Fordham. The triumph at home vs. the Rams was Davidson's first league home victory in its new conference and the biggest in its two years so far at 69-51.

Savage guided the 'Cats to six non-conference wins, marking the most since the Wildcats went 6-5 during the 2007-08 season. They also won the program's seventh in-season tournament title since 1992-93 when they took home wins against Bowling Green and UNC Wilmington at the UNCW Thanksgiving Tournament. It was the second in-season tournament title under Savage for Davidson.

Senior Hannah Early and Dakota Dukes, under the direction of Savage, left their marks scattered throughout the Wildcats' record books. Early was honored with the Rebecca E. Stimson award as the top female athlete at Davidson. She finished her career as the program's all-time record holder in three-pointers, while ranking fourth in scoring with 1,406. Dukes concluded her career with 1,280 points, eighth-most all-time in the record books. Her name is found in nine overall categories in the Wildcat top-15, including third in made free throws (350) and second in attempts (486), and fifth in rebounds with 734.

The 2014-15 season marked a new era for the women's basketball program as Savage, in her fifth season, helped Davidson usher in its first year in the Atlantic 10. The Wildcats won their first-ever A-10 game on the road with a 53-50 win at Saint Louis to open the month of January. It would be the only win though in league play, as they went 1-15 in their first year and 5-25 overall. The 'Cats played 10 new opponents during the campaign, with nine of them being from the A-10.

Savage helped the program win its 400th game in its 36th season with a road win at Gardner-Webb, Nov. 20, 2014. The victory also marked her 75th career win at Davidson.

Under the guidance of Savage, junior Hannah Early became the 17th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points as she accomplished the feat during the 2014-15 season. It was the fourth time during Savage's tenure a Wildcat had reached the 1,000-point mark. Early also went on to set a single season record for three-pointers with 74. Freshman Mackenzie Latt had a great debut season for Savage, earning a spot on the A-10 All-Freshman Team, while earning two A-10 Rookie of the Week awards. Fellow classmate Saadia Timpton also earned an A-10 Rookie of the Week award during the season. Davidson as a team tied the single game record for blocks with 12 in a 76-57 home win over High Point.

In Davidson's final season in the Southern Conference, Savage, in her fourth year, coached the Wildcats to a third place finish with an 11-7 record and a 16-16 mark overall in 2013-14. They reached the SoCon Championship game for the second year in a row, falling to Chattanooga. Savage collected her 50th career SoCon victory at UNCG, Feb. 8, 2014. She moved into second place in program history in league wins, finishing with 52. Davidson as a team tied the single season record for three-pointers with 180. It reached the 10-win plateau for the 11th time in the past 12 years in SoCon victories and had a seven-game home SoCon win streak that spanned from the end of the 2012-13 season into the first three league games of the 2013-14 campaign.

For the second year in a row, Savage saw one of the players in program history become its all-time scoring leader when Laura Murray hit her last bucket in the SoCon Final to set the record with 1,880 points, surpassing Sophia Aleksandravicius, who set the record the year before. Under Savage, Murray also became the program's all-time leader in made and attempted three-pointers and field goals attempted. In addition, the guard's senior season saw her set the single-season Wildcat record for points with 617, field goals attempted and free throws attempted.

Savage coached three all-league players in 2013-14, starting with Murray, who was a first team pick by both the coaches and the media. Dakota Dukes was also named to the first team by the coaches and teamed with Hannah Early on the second team for the media squad. The pair of Murray and Dukes were named to the SoCon All-Tournament First Team, with Murray becoming the first player in program history to earn the feat three times. She also joined Aleksandravicius as the only two players to earn All-SoCon First Team by the coaches.

Savage guided the Wildcats to their second straight 20-win campaign in 2012-13, as they followed up one of their best seasons in program history with yet another strong year. Davidson finished 22-13 overall and went second in the SoCon with a 16-4 record. The 'Cats' 22 wins were tied for the second-most in program history. They rode their outstanding season all the way to the conference tournament championship game, before falling to Chattanooga in a last-second affair. It was just the second time in program history Davidson had reached the final.

The Wildcats' season did not end there as they earned their second straight postseason appearance, and third overall, with a bid into the Women's NIT. They made history winning the program's first postseason game, taking home a first round victory on the road at Old Dominion, 83-72.

Savage coached arguably the best player in program history in two-time SoCon Player and Defender of the Year Sophia Aleksandravicius. The senior at the broke seven all-time records during her three years under Savage, while being named to the coaches and media's all-league first team three times. Aleksandravicius capped off her career by being named the SoCon Female Athlete of the Year, the first female from Davidson to earn the honor. She was also earned the Davidson athletic department's Rebecca A. Stimson Award as the top female student-athlete at the school.

Also during 2012-13, Savage saw Laura Murray become the 16th Wildcat to score over 1,000 career points and earn a spot on the All-SoCon First Team by the coaches and second team by the media. Murray and Aleksandravicius were both named to the SoCon All-Tournament First Team. Dakota Dukes was named to the league's all-freshman team. February 9 was a special day for Savage as she collected her 50th career coaching win at Davidson in a 56-49 road victory at Appalachian State.

In 2012-13, Davidson set a school record with an eight-game road overall win streak, all against SoCon foes. The eight-game SoCon streak tied a school record set from 2005-06 and 2006-07.

The 2011-12 season saw Savage guide the Wildcats to one of their best seasons in program history. They captured the program's first SoCon Regular-Season Title with a school-best mark of 17-3, while the 'Cats' 22 wins were second-most in school history. Davidson also set a school mark for home wins (12-1), while it earned the program's 350th win during the season.

For all her accomplishments, Savage was honored by the coaches and media as she was named the 2011-12 SoCon Coach of the Year. She is the second coach in Wildcat history to garner the media's top coach, while she is the first to be coach of the year in the coaches all-league team. Davidson's trip to the Women's NIT was the program's second-ever bid into postseason play.

In addition, Savage coached the league's player and defender of the Year in Aleksandravicius, who also was a first-teamer on both the coaches and media teams, and Laura Murray, who was an All-SoCon First Team member on both teams as well.

Savage's first season, 2010-11, saw Davidson go 14-17 overall and sport an 8-12 campaign in the Southern Conference. The first-year head coach led the 'Cats to their first league tournament win since 2007 with a 69-53 victory against College of Charleston. They also nearly pulled off an upset of No. 1-seeded Appalachian State in the quarterfinals, before falling 73-63. Savage coached the SoCon Freshman of the Year in Murray and saw Aleksandravicius earn a spot on both the coaches and media All-SoCon First Team, while also pick up first-team all-state honors.

During the regular season, Savage led

Davidson to the program's fourth in-season tournament title when the Wildcats captured the UTSA Thanksgiving Tournament with the program's first-ever wins over North Texas and UTSA, Nov. 26-27. The 'Cats also had their 10th straight winning season at home, going 8-5.

Before Davidson- Part of a Successful Run at Tulane

A Street & Smith's All-American during her playing days at Northwestern, Savage came to Davidson after serving as an assistant coach at Tulane University from 2001-10. While at Tulane, Savage's duties touched all areas of the program as she coached the Green Wave post players on a day-to-day basis and worked with recruiting, directing Tulane's scouting efforts and overseeing the team's academic progress. She was the women's basketball program's liaison with the athletic department's marketing and game management units among many other responsibilities.

During her nine years at Tulane, the Green Wave twice hit the 26-win plateau and reached the NCAA Tournament in 2002, 2003 and 2010. The 2009-10 season saw Tulane go 26-7, earn the Conference USA regular-season title and earn an automatic bid to the postseason after winning the C-USA Tournament. Savage helped lead Tulane to two Conference USA regular-season titles and a Women's NIT bid in 2007.

She helped develop several top Green Wave players who were selected by USA Today for All-American Honorable Mention as well as several first-team Conference USA players. In addition, she had the chance to coach two players, Teana McKiver and Gwen Slaughter, who went on to play in the WNBA.

Hall of Fame Collegiate Career at Northwestern

Savage graduated from Northwestern University in 1993 after a standout career with the Wildcats. A three-time All-Big Ten selection, she was a Kodak All-District choice in 1990, 1991 and 1992 and earned All-America recognition from Street & Smith's in 1991. She helped lead the Wildcats to the 1990 Big Ten Championship and to appearances in the NCAA Tournament in 1990 and 1991 as NU posted 20-plus wins both years.

One of the top 15 players in the nation as a high school senior, she led Northwestern in scoring three times and was also the team's top rebounder in 1990 and 1991. Her career field goal percentage of .606 is still a school record as is her .652 single-season mark from 1990. Savage scored in double figures in 25 straight games as a junior and had a 23-game double-figure scoring streak in her senior season. Savage was inducted in the Northwestern Hall of Fame in 2002 and the Illinois Hall of Fame in 2008.

SEASON NOTES

Latt Pushes Double Figure Streak to 11

Junior Mackenzie Latt kept her scoring streak of reaching the double-digit mark intact by pushing it to 11 straight after recording 19 points at Fordham, Jan. 4.

One away from tying her career best, Latt has averaged 17.5 points and 8.3 rebounds during the streak. She is shooting 46.6 percent from the field, while dishing out 12 assists, blocking 12 shots and pocketing 13 steals.

The junior has also registered all three of her double-doubles and all three 20-point outing this year during the scoring streak.

Closing in on 1,000 Career Points

Junior Mackenzie Latt is the latest Wildcat closing in on 1,000 points. With her 19 points at Fordham, Jan. 4, Latt is now 7 points away from becoming the 19th player in program history. She would be sixth 1,000-point scorer that coach Savage has coached during her seven years.

Streak Pushed to 15 For Double-Digit Offensive Boards

The Wildcats pushed their streak of double-digit offensive rebounds to 15 straight, which dates back to the final game of the 2015-16 season, with a 12-board effort at Fordham, Jan. 4. Twice this year they have had 21 offensive rebounds in a game.

Four Double-Digit Scorers In the Book

For the first time this year Davidson placed four players in double figures in points, led by Justine Lyon's 22-point outing at Fordham, Jan. 4. The sophomore was followed by Mackenzie Latt's 19 points, while Chloe Johnson and Kyla Roland had 14 and 10 points, respectively. It was season highs for both players.

The last game where the 'Cats placed four scorers in double digits was at home last season against Duquesne, Feb. 6, 2016. In that game, Latt, Lyon and Roland were three of the players to score over 10 points, joining Hannah Early.

40-Rebound Streak Halted

Davidson saw its six-game streak of pulling in 40 or more rebounds come to an end with just 32 rebounds vs. Saint Louis, Dec. 31. The 'Cats have registered eight 40-rebound outings on the season. Three times this year they have pulled in a season-best 45 in games against Radford, UNCW and Furman.

'Cats Fall in Conference Opener vs. Saint Louis

Davidson fell to 12-12 all-time in league openers when it dropped a 106-69 decision to Saint Louis, Dec. 31, at home. The 106 points were the most given up in a league game for the 'Cats between the Southern Conference and the Atlantic 10. They also fell to 8-6 in conference openers at home.

Mackenzie Latt and Justine Lyon again paced the offense with 23 and 19 points, respectively. Davidson had one of its better shooting games of the season, nailing 46 percent of its shots, including 52.9 percent in the first quarter.

Seeing Double

Mackenzie Latt, who 11 times as a freshman recorded a double-double for the fifth-most in a Wildcat single season since 1992-93, picked up her second straight double-double, and third of the season, vs. Mercer, Dec. 29, to push her career total to 15.

- 12/3 at ETSU (12 pts/10 rbs)
- 12/21 at Charlotte (28 pts/14 rbs)
- 12/29 vs. Mercer (12 pts/13 rbs)

Lyon Hits 20-Point Mark for First Time

Sophomore Justine Lyon continued her strong second year by hitting the 20-point plateau in a game for the first time, Dec. 29, against Mercer. Lyon dropped in a team-best 22 points on 8-of-13 shooting and added a 5-for-7 showing at the charity stripe.

She went a perfect 5-for-5 from the field in the third quarter to score 12 points.

Lyon Reaches Career High at Charlotte

Sophomore Justine Lyon had a game to remember at Charlotte, Dec. 21, reaching all the way to the 30-point mark in the 'Cats setback to their cross-county rival. She hit an even 30 on a personal-best 11-of-18 shooting, including a career-best 4-for-5 from three-land.

The sophomore had quarters of seven, two, 12 and nine points on her way to becoming the first Wildcat to hit the 30-point mark since Dakota Dukes netted 31 at Wofford, March 2, 2014.

More Season Highs Hit at Charlotte

Despite a 93-79 setback to its cross-county rival Charlotte, Dec. 21, Davidson hit a few new season bests. The Wildcats registered season highs in made and attempted field goals (31-71), points in the paint (42), points off turnovers (30) and second-chance points (23).

They also scored a season-best 25 points in the third quarter.

Latt and Speight Strike Again, Pace 'Cats to Win vs. Furman

For the second game in a row, the pair of Mackenzie Latt and Kianna Speight helped carry Davidson to a win, scoring 25 and 20 points, respectively, in a 71-61 triumph at home vs. Furman, Dec. 18. The duos point totals each tied their career highs. The win was Davidson's seventh in the past nine meetings vs. the Paladins and 15th in the last 21 overall.

Latt finished the game canning a career-high 11 field goals on 17 attempts and added a team-best eight rebounds. Speight's five three-pointers were a career high and she set a new personal best with seven rebounds.

Justine Lyon gave Davidson three double-digit scorers with 12 points and matched Speight with seven boards. Rachel Piles came off the bench to pull in six rebounds and pocket a career-best four steals, while Chloe Johnson dished out a career-high nine assists.

Davidson as a team had 19 helpers on their 26 made field goals. In addition, the Wildcats' point totals of 24 and 28 in the first and fourth quarters were season bests, while it set a team season best with seven blocks and tied a season high with 45 rebounds.

A Pair of 20's

For the first time this year Davidson had a pair of 20-point scorers in the same game as the duo of Mackenzie Latt and Kianna Speight scored 25 and 20 points, respectively, in a win over Furman, Dec. 18.

The 25-point outing for Latt matched her career high, while Speight also matched her personal best, which she set a game earlier vs. High Point.

The last game with two 20-point scorers was last year vs. Charlotte at home, Dec. 20.

Speight & Latt Lead 'Cats to First Win

Kianna Speight and Mackenzie Latt combined for 39 points and Davidson shot a season-best 48.3 percent from the floor on its way to an 82-72 win at home against High Point, Dec. 3.

Speight led all scorers with a career-high 20 points, canning four of her personal-best seven field goals from three-land, while Latt followed with a season-high 19 points on a season-best 9-of-17 shooting. She also filled the stat-sheet with six rebounds, four assists, three steals and a block.

The duo dominated the first and fourth quarters, with Speight scoring 10 points in the opening quarter to help the Wildcats (1-8) grab a 22-13 lead. Latt finished it off with a 10-point final quarter as the 'Cats led by as many as 19 points (77-58) before holding off a late Panther rally.

Season Highs Hit in Win Over the Panthers

In Davidson's first win of the season, an 82-72 victory at home vs. High Point, Dec. 3, it hit several team season bests. Besides the season-high 82 points, the Wildcats finished the game shooting a season-high 8-of-17 from behind the arc. It also had season highs of 20 assists, 20 fast-break points and 27 bench points.

The 20-assist outing was the first since dishing out 25 in a win over the same High Point team back on Nov. 25, 2014 at home.

Cancun Challenge

For the first time in the program's history, the Wildcats traveled outside the United States as they took part in the Cancun Challenge, Nov. 24-25.

Davidson faced Toledo and Idaho State for the first time, dropping both contests. Against the Rockets, the Wildcats fell behind 21-5 and never recovered. Latt paced the team with a game-high 15 points, while freshman Andrea Robinson crashed the glass for a game and season-high 12 rebounds. Davidson kept its streak alive of out-rebounding the opposition on the offensive end, making it five straight games by hauling in 13 rebounds and finished with a game-high 41 overall.

The following day vs. Idaho State, Davidson's valiant comeback effort fell just short against Idaho State in a 70-58. Trailing by as many as 20 (45-25) in the third quarter, Davidson twice got within single digits but a late 9-0 run by the Bengals halted the Wildcats' efforts. Mackenzie Latt again paced the Wildcat attack with a season-high 16 points, 14 of which came in the last two quarters when the 'Cats were making their comeback. Fellow junior Chloe Johnson netted a season-high 13 points, draining 3-of-5 shots from downtown.

Mackenzie Latt and Justine Lyon each hauled in nine boards to lead the Wildcats, with Lyons tying her personal best. Saadia Timpton came off the bench to pull in eight boards, half on the offensive end.

Last year saw Davidson record 12 games of 40 or more rebounds, while its only 20-offensive effort was at Dayton.

Home Openers

In the program's 38-year history, the Wildcats are 17-19 overall in home openers (two of the year's results are incomplete). They fell in this year's home opener to UCF, 57-38, Nov. 16.

Davidson is 7-4 the last 11 years in home openers, falling 4-3 in the past seven years under head coach Michele Savage.

Home Sweet Home

Entering the 2016-17 season, the Wildcats look to continue their strong play at home since the opening of Belk Arena in 1992-93. The Wildcats have gone 170-116 during that time span. Davidson rattled off 13 straight seasons at home with a .500 or better record before the streak ended in 2014-15.

The 'Cats had a school-record 12-1 season in 2011-12 at Belk Arena, making it the 11th straight season the Wildcats had a winning mark. It included a seven-game-win streak to start the home season.

Latt and Roland Enjoy Trip Back Home to Michigan

Junior Mackenzie Latt (Kalamazoo) and Kyla Roland (Farmington Hills) got a chance to play in front of family and friends when Davidson took on No. 22 Michigan State and Western Michigan to open the season, Nov. 11-13.

The junior Latt finished with combined numbers of 18 points and 11 rebounds to go with three blocks and three steals in the two games. She had team highs of seven rebounds, three blocks and three steals at No. 22 Michigan State to open the season.

Roland tallied eight points and seven rebounds, while shooting 50% from the field and hit both free throws.

Season Openers

During the Wildcats' 38-year history, they have gone 10-28 in season-openers after opening the 2016-17 campaign on the road at No. 22 Michigan State, Nov. 11. The Wildcats fell 70-34 to the nationally-ranked Spartans.

Since the program was restarted in 1992-93, they have gone 8-17 and played some pretty tough competition. The 'Cats have faced the likes of top programs in North Carolina (three times), Duke, Vanderbilt, Nebraska, Michigan State (twice), Boston College, Arkansas-Little Rock and Clemson (twice).

During that time period ('92-93), Davidson has opened on the road or at a neutral site 22 times with a 7-15 record in those games.

Assist Streak Ends,

'Cats Pocket 15 Steals at No. 22 Spartans

Davidson saw its 16-game streak of dishing out double-digit assists come to an end in its season opener at No. 22 Michigan State. The Wildcats, who ended last season with 16 straight double-digit assist games, were three short, dishing out seven for the game against the Spartans.

The 'Cats though did do some damage on the defensive end against MSU. They pocketed a game-high 15 steals and forced 21 turnovers. The steal mark was the most since a 15-steal game at Winthrop, Dec. 12, 2014.

First Time Opponents

Davidson's non-conference schedule this year has four new opponents it will be facing for the first time in program history. The 'Cats will face Western Michigan on the road, then UCF at home before taking on Toledo and Idaho State at the Cancun Challenge.

It's the most first-time opponents Davidson will face in a year since it took on 10 during the 2014-15 season, the 'Cats first year in the Atlantic 10.

Preseason Honors For Latt, Davidson Picked 13th in A-10 Poll

The annual Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball media day took place Tuesday, Oct. 25, and junior Mackenzie Latt earned preseason honors. The rising junior was named to the preseason third team, the first program's first player to earn preseason honors. Davidson was picked to finish 13th in the standings. The Wildcats return eight letterwinners from last year's team that went 11-19 overall and 5-11 in league play.
