Catawba needs five wins entering this season to reach #500 in school history. The Catawba Indians have averaged 5.2 wins each year over the previous 95 years. Since 1995, Catawba has averaged 7.25 per campaign.

HOME SWEET HOME

After a 2014 season that saw the Indians play just four home games, Catawba has six games at Shuford Stadium in 2015. The Indians snapped a two-game streak of losses when starting the season at home in 2013 with a 10-9 victory over West Liberty.

ON THE ROAD

Catawba will travel 688 miles for its five road games in 2015. The longest trip for the Indians will be a week three journey to Carson-Newman at 219 miles. The shortest travel will be a 35 mile jaunt to Davidson for game number two of the season.

SIXTH IN PRESEASON

Coming off of its 6-5 season a year ago, Catawba was picked fourth in the 2015 South Atlantic Conference Coaches' Preseason Poll. The Indians garnered 37 points in the poll. Catawba finished in a tie for fourth in the standings last year with Wingate, Newberry and Mars Hill at 3-4 in the SAC.

Defending champion Lenoir-Rhyne received six first-place votes to top the poll as the favorite. Carson-Newman, who Catawba will face in its league opener on Sept. 19, earned the other two first-place votes and is second in the poll. Newberry edge out Catawba by two points for third. Catawba was picked ahead of Tusculum. Mars Hill, Wingate and Brevard.

FOUR NAMED TO PRESEASON ALL-SAC TEAMS

Catawba put nine players on the All-South Atlantic Conference Preseason Football Teams. The Catawba Indians had a pair of first team picks in Carlos Tarrats and Mark McDaniel. Mike Sheehan, David Burgess, Lewis McCormick, Chad Hollandsworth, Jamel Lackey and Caleb Berry earned second team honors.

Tarrats, a junior wide out, led the team with 39 catches and seven touchdowns. McDaniel, a senior cornerback, had a team-high five interceptions a year ago. Sheehan, a junior quarterback, headlines the second team picks. He led the league in passing last year, throwing for 2,273 yards and 17 touchdowns. Sheehan also ran for 10 scores. Burgess, a junior, led the team with 577 yards rushing and scored five touchdowns.

McCormick, a senior lineman, is a four-year starter at tackle. Lackey, a junior linebacker, posted 63 tackles a year ago. Ten of his tackles went for losses and he also returned on interception for a score.

Hollandsworth, a senior, accounted for 60 points last season. He was perfect on 39 PAT tries and connected on seven field goals with three coming from 40+ yards. Berry, a sophomore, averaged 38 yards per punt last year, but will sit out this season.

CURTIS WALKER Head Coach

Curtis Walker became the Head Football Coach at Catawba in December of 2012. He returned to his alma mater after spending one season as the defensive coordinator and linebacker coach at Western Carolina University. Prior to his year in Cullowhee, Walker spent 10 years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Coastal Carolina University.

During Walker's 10 seasons in Conway, the Chanticleers had four players on the defensive side garner All-America accolades, while players within his defense earned a combined 44 All-Big South accolades as the Chanticleers captured three straight Big South Conference titles (2004-06). Coastal also won the league championship in 2010.

Under Walker, Coastal led the league in pass defense in 2006, '07 and '08. On the strength of 18 interceptions in '07, the Chanticleers ranked sixth nationally in turnover margin (1.36). In 2006, Coastal's defense tied for the national lead with 19 interceptions. Walker's defense led the nation in pass efficiency defense and contributed to the top turnover margin in the country, setting a Big South record at plus 22. Coastal twice led the nation in interceptions, getting 19 in 2006 and 27 in 2004.

Walker was a four-year starter and three-time All-American linebacker for Catawba in 1989-92, graduating in 1992 with a degree in sociology. He was inducted into the Catawba Sports Hall of Fame in 2004 and into the South Atlantic Conference Hall of Fame in 2008. Walker was Catawba's team most valuable player in 1991 and served as team captain in 1992.

Walker still holds the Catawba single game record for tackles with 25 stops against Wofford in 1991. He also still owns the all-time single season record for fumble recoveries with six, also set in 1991. Walker earned All-America honors his final three seasons, including first team accolades as a senior in 1992.

Following graduation from Catawba and a two-year coaching period at Salisbury High School, Walker joined the staff at Catawba in 1995. He coached the linebackers and began coordinating all recruiting in 1997. Walker was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2001 and the Indians were ranked first in Division II in scoring defense and 15th in total defense.

At Catawba, Walker was a part of three South Atlantic Conference championships (1996, 2000 and 2001) and three NCAA playoff appearances (1999, 2000 and 2001). The Indians were a combined 22-3 in 2000-01, a lot of the success due to a suffocating defense. Catawba allowed just 13.5 points per game during those 25 games.

A native of Burlington, NC, Walker was a two-time football all-conference performer at Graham High School, prior to graduating in 1988. He was the Mid-State Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1987.

Walker and his wife, Sheka, have two sons; Jalon (11) and Curtis II (9).

CATAWBA's LAST GAME: NCAA II fourth-ranked West Georgia scored 28 unanswered points in the second half to claim an opening 44-13 win over host Catawba on Saturday afternoon at Shuford Stadium and Kirkland Field. The Wolves overcame five turnovers in the win, forcing four and holding the Catawba Indians to just 145 total yards.

Quarterback Dallas Dickey was nearly perfect for West Georgia, completing 15-of-17 passes for 204 yards and a pair of scores. He also ran for a touchdown. Aares McCall eclipsed the 100-yard mark on the ground with 107 yards on 11 carries.

Dickey threw both of his touchdown strikes in the third quarter to help the Wolves break away from a 16-13 lead at the half. His first strike went for 47 yards to Qa Walker and the second went to Shaq Hall for 29 yards to push the margin to 30-13 midway through the period. West Georgia tacked on two fourth-quarter scores for the final margin.

Cary Littlejohn produced the lone Catawba touchdown with a five-yard run late in the second quarter to pull the Indians within 16-13. He finished with 57 yards on the ground. Bruce Smith caught three passes for 22 yards.

Kyle Kitchens had a big day on defense for Catawba. He was in on seven tackles with three going for losses, including a sack. He would force two fumbles and recover one.

The Wolves scored on their opening drive as Dickey ran in from 10 yards. West Georgia looked poised to go up by two scores, but Kitchens forced a fumble at the Catawba 36. The Indians were able to capitalize with a 25-yard field goal from Chad Hollandsworth to cut the deficit to 8-3.

A sack and forced fumble by Jamal Lackey led to a second Hollandsworth field goal late in the first quarter to make it 8-6. Catawba forced another fumble late in the first quarter, but the Indians failed to benefit from the miscue and Telvin Brown followed with a 66-yard punt return to put the Wolves up 16-6 after a second two-point conversion. Littlejohn would get the last points for Catawba with 4:21 left in the half.

TOUGH SCHEDULE AWAITS IN 2015

Half of Catawba's 10 NCAA II opponents earned votes in the AFCA preseason coaches poll. Two of the opponents, West Georgia and Lenoir-Rhyne, begin the year in the top 10.

West Georgia is fourth ranked and will be the highest ranked opponent has faced in a season opener. It also will mark the second straight top five opponent for the Indians after closing out last year against third-ranked Lenoir-Rhyne. Lenoir-Rhyne is the other ranked team on the schedule, coming in at #10.

Receiving votes in the poll were Carson-Newman, UNC Pembroke and Newberry.

IT'S ALL IN A NAME

Catawba and West Georgia are facing off for just the second time, but the first as the West Georgia Wolves. When the teams met during the playoffs in 2000 the Catawba Indians were facing the West Georgia Braves. West Georgia changed its nickname in 2006.

WALKER 1-0 IN OT GAMES

The overtime win over Newberry was the first time Catawba has went to extra periods under Curtis Walker. The win snapped a string of three stright overtimes losses dating back to 2005 which started with a double-overtime loss to Newberry. Catawba is now 4-6 all-time in overtime games.

LITTLEJOHN SLIDES UP RUSHING LIST

Catawba senior Cary Littlejohn moved up to 29th on Catawba's all-time rushing list with his 57 yards against West Georgia. He needs just over 100 yards to move into the 25th spot.

BURGESS CLOSING IN ON 1,000

Junior David Burgess is 27 yards short of 1,000 yards for his career. He would become the 37th player at Catawba to reach the plateau. Burgess suffered a game-one injury and will be out of action until at least October.

Junior wide out Carlos Tarrats is out to become the 16th Catawba receiver to snag 100 receptions in a career. He currently stands 19th with 85 catches in just over two seasons.

SHEEHAN MOVING TOWARD TOP 10 IN PASSING

Junior Mike Sheehan needs just over 1,000 passing yards to pass Harry Monokian and into 10th place on the all-time passing list. Sheehan has thrown for 2,611 yards in his career and currently ranks 12th.

LAST MEETING

September 6, 2014
Catawba 35, Davidson 7

DAVIDSON -- Catawba knocked off host Davidson 35-7 to win its football opener at Richardson Field. Mike Sheehan completed all but one pass, totaling 174 yards with three touchdowns. Davidson looked to have some momentum early. The Wildcats drove deep into Catawba territory on their first possession, but were stopped on downs. Davidson was set up again by an Indian fumble at midfield only to see the game turn when Jamal Lackey intercepted a second-down pass and raced 67 yards for the game's first score. Sheehan threw touchdown passes on Catawba's next two possessions. The first went to freshman Keyon West, who made a diving catch in the end zone to complete the 30-yard score. Sheehan's second scoring strike went to Carlos Tarrats on a fourth-down play that covered 31 yards. Catawba fumbled deep in Davidson territory on its next drive, but Terence Williams intercepted a Wildcat pass to get the offense back on the field. Sheehan drove the unit down the field once again and capped the 69-yard drive with a 22-yard pass to Tyler Hamilton. Catawba led 28-0 at the half and outgained Davidson 330 to 102 in the opening 30 minutes. The Indians capped their scoring early in the second half. Sheehan delivered a 40-yard pass to Cary Littlejohn to jump-start the drive. David Burgess followed with runs of 27 and eight yards to put the points on the board. Davidson averted the shutout midway through the fourth quarter on a one-yard run by David Rogers. Sheehan went 12-of-13 through the air for 174 yards and the three scores. He also added another 56 yards on the ground. The Indians gained 305 yards rushing with Trey Mashore leading the way with 78 yards on eight carries. In addition to his interception, Lackey also posted three tackles for losses to lead the defense. Jason Taylor had two stops for losses among his six tackles on the night. J.P. Douglas had 117 yards passing for Davidson, completing 19-of-29 passes with the two interceptions. Rogers ran for a team-high 38 yards, while Cam Cheuvront hauled in seven passes for 53 yards. Matt Casey was in on 14 tackles with Myles Atkins making 10 stops and causing a fumble.

#4 West Georgia 44, Catawba 13

SALISBURY -- NCAA II fourth-ranked West Georgia scored 28 unanswered points in the second half to claim an opening 44-13 win over host Catawba on Saturday afternoon at Shuford Stadium and Kirkland Field. The Wolves overcame five turnovers in the win, forcing four and holding the Catawba Indians to just 145 total yards.

Quarterback Dallas Dickey was nearly perfect for West Georgia, completing 15-of-17 passes for 204 yards and a pair of scores. He also ran for a touchdown. Aares McCall eclipsed the 100-yard mark on the ground with 107 yards on 11 carries.

Dickey threw both of his touchdown strikes in the third quarter to help the Wolves break away from a 16-13 lead at the half. His first strike went for 47 yards to Qa Walker and the second went to Shaq Hall for 29 yards to push the margin to 30-13 midway through the period. West Georgia tacked on two fourth-quarter scores for the final margin.

Cary Littlejohn produced the lone Catawba touchdown with a five-yard run late in the second quarter to pull the Indians within 16-13. He finished with 57 yards on the ground. Bruce Smith caught three passes for 22 yards.

Kyle Kitchens had a big day on defense for Catawba. He was in on seven tackles with three going for losses, including a sack. He would force two fumbles and recover one.

The Wolves scored on their opening drive as Dickey ran in from 10 yards. West Georgia looked poised to go up by two scores, but Kitchens forced a fumble at the Catawba 36. The Indians were able to capitalize with a 25-yard field goal from Chad Hollandsworth to cut the deficit to 8-3.

A sack and forced fumble by Jamal Lackey led to a second Hollandsworth field goal late in the first quarter to make it 8-6. Catawba forced another fumble late in the first quarter, but the Indians failed to benefit from the miscue and Telvin Brown followed with a 66-yard punt return to put the Wolves up 16-6 after a second two-point conversion. Littlejohn would get the last points for Catawba with 4:21 left in the half.
