2019 PIONEER FOOTBALL LEAGUE WEEKLY REPORT

SETTING THE WEEK 1 SCENE

Three PFL teams will start 2019 with Thursday contests followed by another five opening on Saturday, leaving Dayton and Marist who will wait until Week 2 to start their 2019 seasons... New Valparaiso head coach Landon Fox will lead the Crusaders into their 100th season with a matchup at Eastern Kentucky, a team receiving votes in both preseason polls... Morehead State will open its 2019 slate at home when it hosts in-state foe Union with eyes turning to the Eagles offensive line which boasts Preseason All-PFL pick Josh Poe as well as Cam Bailey, who was selected to Phil Steele's Preseason All-PFL team... Jacksonville will make the trek north on Interstate 95 to meet Richmond for the first time in program history. The Dolphins will look to revive their potent running attack featuring quarterback Calvin Turner Jr. and fullback Garnett Thomas, both Preseason All-PFL picks... Speaking of potent running attacks, Davidson - FCS' top running game in 2018 - will look to hit the ground running when it hosts Georgetown to begin Saturday's action. Wildcats running back Wesley Dugger, who has back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons, will begin his march for a third against the Hoyas... A pair of matchups pairing PFL teams against North Dakota's Division I football program's highlight Saturday's action as Drake travels to Grand Forks to face North Dakota while Butler treks to Minneapolis for a date against defending FCS champion North Dakota State... Drake begins the season under a new head coach, but a familiar face as Todd Stepsis his sixth season in Des Moines, but first as head coach... Butler's defense will get an early test but safety Luke Sennett and linebacker Mason Brunner, each Preseason All-PFL picks, will provide much needed experience against the Bison... San Diego will face in-state foe Cal Poly for the first time since the two teams met in a 2016 FCS playoff contest that the Toreros won... USD enters 2019 seeking answers at quarterback after Anthony Lawrence graduated with 12,268 career passing yards in four seasons, but wide receiver Michael Bandy returns after leading all FCS receivers with 1,628 receiving yards... BUTLER FACES DEFENDING CHAMPION BISONS AT TARGET FIELD

Butler will travel to Target Field for its 2019 season-opening contest against FCS defending champion North Dakota State at 3 p.m. Saturday in Minneapolis, Minnesota in a contest presented by Pioneer. The matchup, which will be an NDSU home game, will be the second collegiate and first Division I football game played at Target Field, home of the Minnesota Twins. The game will mark the first meeting between the two schools and will be the season-opener for both teams.

VALPARAISO'S 100TH SEASON

Valparaiso is set to celebrate its 100-year history over the course of the campaign by recognizing and celebrating individuals and teams from select eras at four games this season. The Crusaders have won 11 conference championships, including six in the Indiana Collegiate Conference and two in the Pioneer Football League. Valparaiso will retire the numbers of two University legends at the Homecoming game on Sept. 28 at Brown Field. Garry Puetz '73 and Fuzzy Thurston '56 (posthumous) will become the first players in program history to have their numbers retired.

DAYTON'S SCORING STREAK ENTERS 2019 AT 476 GAMES

The nation's longest streak of games without being shutout belongs to Dayton, which extended its streak to 476 games this season. That streak includes 281 games as an FCS member that is second among active FCS-only streaks. Montana holds the FCS-only longest streak without being shutout at 391 games which dates back to 1989. On the FBS side, Florida holds that subdivision's longest streak of games without being shutout at 381, dating back to the 1988 season. Meanwhile, the Flyers streak dates back to 1976 when it suffered a 9-0 loss to Marshall.

NINE FIRST-TEAM ALL-PFL RETURNEES HIGHLIGHT PRESEASON SQUAD

The 29-member Preseason All-PFL squad saw nine First-Team All-PFL selections return from the 2018 season. Three 2018 first-teamers return on offense with San Diego wide receiver Michael Bandy leading the unit. Drake defensive back Will Warner leads a group of five 2018 first-team selections on the league's preseason defensive unit. San Diego return specialist Michael Armstead is the lone returning first-team selection on the league's special teams unit. Six PFL teams have a First-Team All-PFL returnee on their roster in 2018: San Diego (3), Drake (2), Davidson, Dayton, Jacksonville and Stetson

SAN DIEGO PICKED TO WIN PFL

For the ninth consecutive year, San Diego was picked to win the Pioneer Football League regular-season race in a preseason vote of the league's coaches. San Diego, which has won regular-season title each of the past three seasons, again received the coaches' nod to win the 2019 PFL title. With seven first-place votes, the Toreros were chosen ahead of Dayton and Drake, who picked up the remaining three first-place votes.

THREE PFL PUNTERS NAMED TO FCS PUNTER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

In order to meet the criteria set forth by Allstate and the AFCA, each player must be actively involved with a charitable organization or service group while maintaining a strong academic standing.

PARADY DEAN OF PFL, FCS COACHES

As 2019 gets underway, the longest-tenured coaches in Division I FCS are Marist's Jim Parady and Monmouth's Kevin Callahan, who have been head coaches at their respective schools since 1992. On the other end of the spectrum, the PFL welcomes two new head coaches in 2019: Valparaiso's Landon Fox and Drake's Jeff Stepsis, who were part of 24 new head coaches in the FCS this season.

LONDON FOX TAKES OVER AT VALPARAISO

In March Valparaiso Director of Athletics Mark LaBarbera introduced Landon Fox as the 18th head coach of the Crusaders football program. Fox is no stranger to success in the Pioneer Football League, as he spent the 11 previous season as Dayton's defensive coordinator and secondary coach. During that time, the Flyers compiled an 86-38 record, won three PFL championships and participated in the 2015 FCS playoffs while making defense a hallmark of the program.

STETSON'S HUGHES EARNS CONTRACT EXTENSION

Coming off the best season in more than 65 years, Stetson football coach Roger Hughes was rewarded with a contract extension that will keep him on the Hatters sideline through at least the 2021 season. Hughes, who has guided the Stetson football program since 2011 when he was charged with leading the program onto the field after more than 50 years without a team, was named Pioneer Football League Coach of the Year in 2018.

DRAKE NAMES STEPSIS HEAD COACH

Todd Stepsis, the architect of the Drake football team's nationally-ranked defense, was named the head coach of the Drake football team in December. He takes the reins of the Bulldogs' program after serving as the program's defensive coordinator for the past five seasons under previous head coach Rick Fox, who resigned his position. As the defensive coordinator, Stepsis built the Drake defense into one of the nation's top units and coached a total of 42 all-conference selections including the program's all-time leading tackler and the 2018 PFL Defensive Player of the Year, Nathan Clayberg.

PFL'S 27TH CAMPAIGN

The 2019 season marks the 27th year for the Pioneer Football League – the nation's only non-scholarship, football-only NCAA Football Championship Subdivision conference. The league will feature 10 teams each playing an eight-game schedule to determine the league champion and recipient of the automatic bid to the 2018 NCAA FCS Championship.

PRESBYTERIAN TO JOIN PFL IN 2021

In 2019, the Pioneer Football League Commissioner presidents' council agreed to accept Presbyterian College's request for membership, effective for the 2021 season. Presbyterian College's football program will remain a Big South member for the 2019 season while continuing to phase out scholarships in order to obtain PFL eligibility. The Blue Hose will play one season as a Division I independent in 2020 before joining the PFL in 2021.

c - co-champions

- Jacksonville vacated its 2010 co-championship as part of penalties for PFL rules violations.

Notes on PFL Championship: From 1993-2000 - and returning to the format in 2005 - the PFL was composed of one division and the championship was awarded to the team with the best conference record. From 2001-2005, the league expanded and split into two divisions with the divisional winners, who were the teams with the best record against divisional opponents, facing off in a championship game, the winner of that game was awarded the league's championship.

NOTES: The PFL records on this page reflect PFL penalties imposed against Jacksonville (# - vacated 30 wins during the 2010-14 seasons) and San Diego (% - vacated 7 wins during the 2013 season). In accordance with NCAA policy, the wins and ties, but not the losses, of the penalized team are dropped from its PFL record only. The won-lost records for each of the opposing teams are not changed when games are vacated. In addition, the overall records for both teams were not changed.
