excellence in everything that we do. I cannot wait to get started. Go Wildcats!"

Former Davidson AD Jim Murphy:

"Gayle understands the opportunities and relationships of a high-academic Division I environment," said Murphy. "She has been recognized by her peers for her commitment to the scholar-athlete experience and her ability to recruit and develop players. We welcome Gayle and her husband Ryan to the Davidson community."

Coach History...

It was a solid first year for Coats Fulks as a head coach at Davidson during the 2017-18 season. The Wildcats doubled their win total from the previous season by going 12-18 overall and a program-best 7-9 in Atlantic 10 play. Coats Fulks earned her first career coaching victory with a 70-57 triumph at Western Carolina, Nov. 10. She became the third Wildcat head coach in the program's 39-year history to start a career with a win. It was also Davidson's 10th straight win in the series vs. the Cata-mounts.

Along the way, other highlights included a home opening win vs. UNC Asheville, a thrilling win at High Point by overcoming a 19-point third-quarter deficit and a victory against cross-county rival Charlotte that snapped an eight-game losing streak in the series. Davidson set a new road winning streak mark in A-10 games, running off a three-game streak with wins at Richmond, St. Bonaventure and Rhode Island.

During Coats Fulks first season, she saw senior Mackenzie Latt go over 1,500 career points and end her career third all-time in scoring to go with a second place finish in rebounds and made field goals. Latt was named to the A-10 All-Third Team, while Katie Turner earned a spot on the league's all-rookie team. Turner also set the single season record for made three-pointers with 75. Justine Lyon became the 20th Wildcat to reach 1,000 career points during Coats Fulks first season as well.

Coats Fulks came to Davidson from Wake Forest University, where she spent the five years as an assistant coach under Jen Hoover. The last two years (2015-16 & 2016-17) Wake Forest earned at-large bids to the Women's NIT, reaching the second round both seasons during Coats Fulks

On May 10, 2017, Davidson College Athletic Director Jim Murphy announced the hiring of Gayle Coats Fulks as the head coach for the Wildcat women's basketball program. She is the 12th head coach in the program's 38-year history.

Quick Highlights...

- Doubled Davidson's win total from previous season in first year as a head coach, going 12-18 in 2017-18 and a program-best 7-9 in the A-10.
- Earned her first career coaching victory with a 70-57 triumph at Western Carolina, Nov. 10.
- Became the third Wildcat head coach in the program's 39-year history to start a career with a win.
- Davidson set a new road winning streak in A-10 games, running off a three-game streak with wins at Richmond, St. Bonaventure and Rhode Island.
- During first year at Davidson, Mackenzie Latt earned A-10 All-Third Team honors and Katie Turner was named to the league's All-Rookie Team.
- Was recognized as one of WBCA's Thirty Under 30 honorees after fourth season at Wake Forest in 2015-16. The award is given annually to up-and-coming coaches 30 years old and younger, to recognize their involvement in community service, mentorship and impact on others' professional manner and attitude as well as association involvement.
- During tenure at Wake Forest, the Demon Deacons earned back-to-back post-season bids to the Women's NIT in 2016 and 2017, reaching the second round both seasons.
- Graduated from Fairleigh Dickinson in 2007, where she was a four-year letter-winner for the Knights.

Quotes...

Coats Fulks: "It is a dream come true to be named the next head women's basketball coach at Davidson," commented Coats Fulks. "I want to thank President Quillen and Jim Murphy for the opportunity to join this amazing community. I believe that Davidson has the perfect fusion of genuine and dedicated people, prestigious academics, and top-notch facilities to achieve a high level of success on and off the court. I will work tirelessly to create a culture of tenure.

During the 2016-17 season, the Demon Deacons went 17-16 overall and earned a win over Bethune-Cookman in the first round of the WNIT before falling to Middle Tennessee State to end their season. Guard Alex Sharp became the second student-athlete under Coats Fulks to be named to the Atlantic Coast Conference All-Freshman Team, joining fellow teammate Ariel Stephenson who garnered the award a year ago from the Blue Ribbon Panel and the league's coaches.

In addition to helping the Demon Deacons to consecutive NIT appearances the last two seasons, Coats Fulks was recognized during the 2015-16 campaign as one of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) Thirty Under 30 honorees. The award is given annually to up-and-coming coaches 30 years old and younger, to recognize their involvement in community service, mentorship and impact on others' professional manner and attitude as well as association involvement.

While on the bench for head coach Hoover for five seasons, Coats Fulks assisted in all aspects of the program, from academics to recruiting, where she served as an integral part to the Demon Deacons putting together ranked recruiting classes each year on staff.

In her first season with the Deacs, she helped guide one of the top-scoring backcourts in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Point guard Chelsea Douglas led the team in scoring at 14.6 points per game, while Lakevia Boykin was right behind her at 14.4 points. The two combined to make 134 three-pointers on the season, with Douglas' 72 ranking as the third-most for a single-season in school history.

Coats Fulks joined the Wake Forest staff after one season as an assistant coach at UNC Greensboro in 2011-12. With the Spartans, Coats Fulks assisted with academics, recruiting, scouting, game preparation and practice planning, along with player development. She also served as the Coats Fulks broke into the coaching ranks at Longwood University, where she was on staff from 2007-11. In her first season with the Lancers, they went 16-13, notching the program's best win total in its Division I era at the time.

Prior to her first collegiate job, Coats Fulks served as the Assistant Video Coordinator during the 2007 season for the WNBA's New York Liberty, where she assisted with scouting reports and film exchange.

A four-year letterwinner at Fairleigh Dickinson, Coats Fulks was a co-captain and member of the Northeast Conference All-Academic squad. She graduated in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in business management.

The Davidson sports information staff welcomes your coverage of the 2018-19 women's basketball team. The list below contains information to assist you if you plan to cover a game at Davidson or visit the campus for stories. Contact Women's Basketball SID Gavin McFarlin for special requests or information not contained here.

Davidson College Sports Information Office is located on the lower level of the Baker Sports Complex at the west end of the basketball court.

Sports Information: Gavin McFarlin is entering his 14th year in Davidson's sports information office. He serves as the primary contact for women's basketball, women's soccer, men's and women's tennis, and lacrosse.

Prior to coming to Davidson, McFarlin spent two years at University of the Pacific in Stockton, Calif., working in the media relations office as a graduate assistant. While at Pacific, he received his master's degree in mass communication in May of 2005. McFarlin has also worked in the Ashland University and North Florida SID offices during his time in the sports information field.

A native of Ashland, Ohio, McFarlin attended Ashland University in his hometown, graduating with a degree in sports communication and a minor in electronic media production, radio/television in May of 2002.

Gavin, his wife Courtenay daughter Joyanna and son Oakley reside in Huntersville, N.C.

Credentials: Requests for press, radio, television and photographers' credentials must be made through Assistant Sports Information Director Gavin McFarlin.

Credentials will be held at the media will call table in the Vance Center.

Radio Broadcasts: Stations originating broadcasts of Davidson basketball games receive courtside locations at Belk Arena. There are two broadcast lines available. Contact the sports information office to make arrangements for this service.

Video Streaming: All Davidson home games will be video streamed through ESPN+. A subscription package is $4.99 a month by visiting ESPN+ website.

Player Interviews: Except for post-game situations, interviews with players must be arranged through the sports information office or basketball office.

Postgame interviews will take place after a 10-minute cooling-off period in the press room located on the west end of Belk Arena or on the court.

Game Information: Prior to the game, Davidson furnishes programs, statistics and rosters in the press room. Game services include play-by-play, halftime box scores and final box scores. Refreshments are available in the press room at Belk Arena.

Internet: The Wildcats have established a homepage on the Internet and will include information regarding all Davidson sports including basketball. Current information will be provided as we develop this medium. You may access this information at www.davidsonwildcats.com.

Top flight facility. Top notch school. An excellent combination of athletics and academics. That's the setting for the women's basketball team at Davidson College. The Baker Sports Complex is the centerpiece of the Wildcats' athletics facilities and the heart of Davidson basketball.

Belk Arena, which seats 5,223 for basketball, has been the Wildcats' home since they started playing again in 1992-93.

In addition to the 5,223-seat John M. Belk Arena, the complex includes the Carl and Louise Knobloch Tennis Center, Cannon Natatorium, Dickson Administrative Wing and Finley Education Center, plus the Charles W. Parker Wrestling Room, a weight room, sports medicine center, four racquetball courts and one squash court. It also houses the athletic department offices.

Named in honor of the late John M. Belk '43 — a former captain of the Wildcats' teams, a Davidson College trustee for more than 15 years and former mayor of Charlotte.

In 2011-12, Davidson had its best season ever at home. The Wildcats went a school-record 12-1 and rattled off a seven-game win streak to start the year. It marked the ninth straight winning season on their home court.

MEDIA INFORMATION / JOHN M. BELK ARENA

It was a new era for the women's basketball program as first-year head coach Gayle Coats Fulks took over and she helped the Wildcats double their win total from the 2016-17 season. A few of the highlights from the 2017-18 season are below...

Doubling Up the Win Total, Best Finish In A-10

With Davidson's regular season finale win over VCU, Feb. 24, it won its 12th game which doubled the win total from the 2016-17 season. The 12 wins are the most since a 16-win outing in 2013-14.

In addition, the Wildcats went 7-9 in A-10 games, which is the program best since joining the league in 2014-15.

Welcome to the 1,000-Point Club

Junior Justine Lyon became the 20th player in program history to reach the 1,000-point mark when she went off for a game-high 22 points in a regular season finale win at home vs. VCU, Feb. 24. She reached the mark when she swished home her first basket, a three-pointer, in the first quarter.

It marks the 11th year in the past 12 that a Wildcat has scored 1,000 points for their career. Last year saw Mackenzie Latt reach the milestone to become the 19th player.

Davidson Sends Seniors Out With a Win over VCU

Justine Lyon scored a game-high 22 points, including the 1,000th of her career, and Davidson shot a season-best 47.2 percent from the floor in helping give the senior class one last home victory with a 69-63 decision over VCU.

Playing their final home game was seniors Mackenzie Latt (eight points, six rebounds, three steals), Saadia Timpton and Chloe Johnson. Timpton assisted the 'Cats in tying a season best with 10 three-pointers by hitting a career-best three of her own and finished with a career-best tying 10 points.

Justine Lyon became the program's 20th player to reach the 1,000-point mark for a career when she swished home her first basket, a three-pointer, in the first quarter.

Seeing Double

Mackenzie Latt, who 11 times as a freshman recorded a double-double for the fifth-most in a Wildcat single season since 1992-93, tallied eight on the season to give her 27 for her career.

Freshman Sarah Donovan joined the double-double club when she tallied her first-ever with a season-high tying 15 points and 10 rebounds at Saint Louis, Feb. 4.

Katie Turner recorded her first collegiate double-double at home vs. Dayton, scoring 16 points and pulling in a season-high 11 rebounds.

Justine Lyon tallied a pair of double-doubles, with her second coming in a comeback win at High Point, Dec. 18. The junior scored a season-high 25 points and hauled in a career-best 13, recording 18 points and six boards alone in the fourth quarter. Her first career double-double came against Gardner-Webb with 14 points and 10 rebounds.

19-Game Streak Snapped for Lyon

Junior Justine Lyon saw her career-high 19-game streak of scoring in double figures come to an end with a three-point outing at home vs. Fordham, Feb. 10.

During the streak, Lyon is averaging 15.5 points and 5.6 rebounds, while shooting 73.6 percent from the free-throw line. She also has 53 total assists and 34 steals (1.9 per game) during the streak. The junior hit the 20-point mark three times, including a season-high 25 points in a win at High Point, Dec. 18.

Latt Joins the 1,500-Point Club; 1,500-Point & 800-Rebound Club too

Senior Mackenzie Latt became just the fourth Wildcat in program history to score 1,500 points in a career when she netted 20 points at Saint Louis, Feb. 4. She joins Sophia Aleksandravicius, Laura Murray and Davidson Hall of Famer Jennifer O'Brien.

In addition, she became just the second player-ever to have over 1,500 points and over 800 rebounds in a career, as Aleksandravicius was the lone Wildcat to hold the honor.

Latt's Career Day Leads 'Cats to Road Win at Rhode Island

Senior Mackenzie Latt scored a career-high 32 points, recorded her second double-double in the past three games and Davidson cruised to a 79-67 Atlantic 10 road win at Rhode Island, Jan. 31.

Latt picked up her sixth double-double of the season, and the 25th of her career, on game highs of 32 points (shot a team season high and career best 14-for-25 from the floor) and 12 rebounds. It was the senior's second 30-point outing in the past three games after scoring 31 vs. UMass, Jan. 24. Latt had seven of her rebounds on the offensive end to tie a season high, while pocketing a season-best six steals.

The forward netted 24 points in the second half alone.

Turner Wins Second A-10 Rookie Of the Week Award

Freshman starting point guard Katie Turner nabbed her second Atlantic 10 weekly award when she was named the co-rookie of the week, as announced by the league office for games played from Jan. 22-28.

The Reno, Nev., native averaged 13.5 points and 7.5 rebounds a game for the week, hitting the double-digit mark in points in both home games against UMass and Dayton.

Hall of Famer Jennifer O'Brien's Jersey Retired During Dayton Game
Former Wildcat great and a Davidson Hall of Famer Jennifer O'Brien had her jersey retired during halftime of the Dayton home, Jan. 27. O'Brien becomes the second player in the program's history to have their jersey retired, joining Sarah Womack.

Davidson Wins Thrilling Double-OT Game vs. UMass, 87-81

Mackenzie Latt scored a career-high 31 points, Kianna Speight hit the 20-point mark for the second game in a row with 23 points and the duo combined for 18 points in two extra periods as Davidson pulled out an 87-81 double-overtime win against Massachusetts, Jan. 24.

Latt and Speight each hit a pair of free throws in the first 50 seconds of the second overtime to break up a 73-all tie, and Davidson went 8-for-9 overall on its way to securing the win.

Unselfish Play, Season-High 23 Assists With Season-best 14 Steals

The Wildcats played very unselfishly in a double-overtime win vs. UMass, Jan. 24, dishing out a season-best 23. Pacing the 'Cats was senior Saadia Timpton with a career-high six dimes, while Mackenzie Latt and Kianna Speight (career best) each had five. The 20-assist outing was its second straight after 20 assists in a win at St. Bonaventure, Jan. 20.

In addition, behind Sarah Donovan's season-high four steals the Wildcats tallied a season-best 14 steals in the win.

Season Highs of 10 Triples & 20 Assists at St. Bonaventure

Davidson had its outside shot working in a win vs. St. Bonaventure, while playing unself ball. The Wildcats hit a season-high 10 three-pointers, paced by Kianna Speight's career-best six on her way to a personal-best 27 points. Katie Turner nailed three of her own, including the 10th of the ball game.

Turner, Wildcats Secure First A-10 Win, 77-67

Freshman Katie Turner tied a season-high with six three-pointers on her way to 21 points to lead Davidson to its first Atlantic 10 victory with a 77-67 win at home over Rhode Island, Jan. 7.

Turner went 6-for-7 from behind the arc and reached the 20-point for the second time this year. Davidson halted a four-game league losing streak and went a season-best 9-of-16 overall on three-pointers.

Turner and Lyon Win Weekly Awards

Freshman Katie Turner capped off her outstanding week before Christmas by being named the Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Week, as announced by the league office, while Justine Lyon was named College Sports Madness Atlantic 10 Player of the Week for games played from Dec. 18-24.

Turner led Davidson to a 2-0 week with wins over High Point on the road and Charlotte at home by averaging 12 points and shooting 8-of-16 from the field, including 6-of-12 from beyond the arc. She also dished out seven assists, with five of them coming in the win vs. Charlotte.

Lyon had a stellar week, averaging a

Wildcats Halt Losing Streak vs. Cross-County Rival, Down Charlotte 68-66

Freshman Katie Turner drained a game-winning three-pointer with 37 ticks left and Davidson withstood a last-second shot from Charlotte to earn a 68-66 victory Thursday, Dec. 21.

The win snapped an eight-game losing streak in the series for the Wildcats, as they won for the first time since the 2006-07 season.

Thrilling Comeback Win at High Point, Four in a Row in the Series

Justine Lyon led four players in double figures with a season-high 25 points and Davidson overcame a 19-point deficit in the third quarter to score an 82-74 comeback win on the road at High Point, Dec. 18. It was the Wildcats' fourth consecutive win in the series.

Donovan Earns Program's First A-10 Rookie of the Week Honor

Freshman Sarah Donovan collected the Wildcats' first Atlantic 10 women's basketball weekly award this season when she was named the league's rookie of the week for games played, Nov. 13-19. The first-year forward from London, Ontario, Canada, led Davidson to a 1-1 week against Furman and Appalachian State by averaging a team-best 14.5 points, while pulling in 7.0 rebounds a game. Donovan shot 47.4 percent from the floor and was 11-of-13 from the free throw line.

'Cats Escape Boone With a Win vs. App. State

Justine Lyon hit a driving layup on the baseline with 6.7 seconds and Davidson forced a turnover on Appalachian State's last possession to earn a hard-fought 59-57 road win, Nov. 19. ASU had erased a 56-47 Wildcat lead, before Lyon sealed the win. She gathered in a pass on the far side and drove baseline, banking in the game-winner on a layup to make it 59-57. The junior then forced the Mountaineers' 25th turnover of the game to seal up the win.

Robinson & Donovan Lead 'Cats to Season-Opening Win, 10th Straight vs. Western Andrea Robinson scored a career-high 16 points and Sarah Donovan sparked a fourth-quarter comeback as Davidson opened its 2017-18 season with 70-57 road win at Western Carolina, Nov. 10. Donovan scored all eight of her points in the fourth quarter to help turn a 47-44 deficit into a 54-49 lead that Davidson would never give back.

Congrats Coach Gayle on First Win

Davidson earned first-year head coach Gayle Coats Fulks her first career coaching win when it opened the season with a 70-57 road win at Western Carolina, Nov. 10. Coats Fulks was the third head coach in program history to win their first game at Davidson.

It was a new era for most of Davidson College sports as it moved to the Atlantic 10 for the 2014-15 after a 74-year run in the Southern Conference (1936-88, 1991-2013).

"Davidson is thrilled to join the Atlantic 10 Conference to compete alongside some of the most dynamic Division I student-athletes in the country," Quillen said. "Our athletic teams – from men's basketball to women's lacrosse, from men's swimming to women's tennis – are ready for this new opportunity and we have the greatest confidence they will succeed."

According to most recent NCAA graduation rates, the Atlantic 10 ranked second among all Division I conferences, with 90 percent of their student-athletes graduating.

"The Atlantic 10 is a conference that gives Davidson the opportunity to be associated with and compete against institutions with significant profiles, both academically and athletically, while we continue to establish our national brand. This is a great opportunity to use athletics to further the goals and objectives of the college as we enhance the experience of our students," said Director of Athletics Jim Murphy.

The geographic footprint of the Atlantic 10 Conference covers eight different states and the District of Columbia for a total population of 75.3 million people (2010 Census).

The move allows 19 of Davidson's 21 sports to compete in the A-10, with the exception of football and wrestling. Football will remain in the Pioneer Football League which hosts non-scholarship programs, while wrestling will seek to continue its affiliation with the Southern Conference.

SARAH WOMACK PARHAM, INDUCTED IN 1996-97

Parham, Director of Psychosocial Club House, Catawba County Mental Health Services, became the first women's basketball player to be inducted into the Davidson Hall of Fame. She set 18 school records in her four-year career from 1977 through 1980 and she's the only female athlete whose jersey is retired. When she graduated in 1980, Womack's school records included most career points (1,249) and rebounds (601). Ranking ninth in career points, she's the all-time leader in points per game (16.7) and is third in made field goals (556). She holds the single-game record for attempted field goals (32) and ranks third in points per game for a single season at 19.1. She received the Rebecca Stimson Award in 1980 as the college's most outstanding female athlete.

ELIZABETH A. TANNER, INDUCTED IN 1997-98

Beth Tanner was the 1978 recipient of the Rebecca Stimson Award for her accomplishments in women's basketball and field hockey. A standout guard on the basketball team, Tanner graduated in 1978 as the Wildcat's all-time leading scorer in women's basketball with 792 points. Tanner also held single-game (10 against Guilford) and season (67 in 1976) records in assists, and the season record holder for steals with 60. Tanner averaged 11.3 points per game in her career from 1974 through 1978. She also at one time shared the single-game record for field goal percentage with .818 (9 for 11) against Catawba in 1974.

JENNIFER R. ROOS, INDUCTED IN 2004-05

A three-sport athlete at Davidson, Jennifer Roos excelled at whatever she did. She was an outstanding field hockey player during some of the squad's best seasons, earning the Stimson Award as Davidson's top female athlete to cap her career. As a freshman, she was named the team's defensive MVP. The following year, only one person was honored as the team MVP, and she earned it each of her final three seasons. Roos, a defender, scored nine goals and had one assist as a sophomore, the best offensive output of her career. She was named All-Deep South each of her first three campaigns, plus was All-Southeast Region as a junior.

One of the first field hockey players to be awarded a scholarship, Roos was a member of the lacrosse club team that went 12-3 before the sport was elevated to varsity status the year after she graduated. She was also a key player for the women's basketball team in its first season back as a varsity sport during her senior year. She played the point and was one of two players to start all 22 games. Her 77 assists led the team, as did her 64 steals. She also drained a three-pointer at the buzzer to lift the Wildcats to a 64-62 win over Winthrop.

CAROLYN KIRSCH RUMPEL, INDUCTED IN 2007-08

Davidson's first women's basketball player to be named SoCon Player of the Year (1997), Kirsch ranks second all-time in rebounding (878) and ranks sixth in scoring (1,370 points). The native of Heidelberg, Germany, earned first-team All-SoCon honors in 1997 and was named second-team all-league in 1996. She was named to the conference's academic honor roll twice and was a two-time winner of the Wildcat Award, given to the team's most valuable player. Kirsch led the 'Cats to a 29-23 overall record and two top-5 SoCon finishes in her final two seasons.

JENNIFER O'BRIEN, INDUCTED IN 2010-11

Second all-time scorer in school history with 1,510 points when she graduated, Jennifer O'Brien was named first-team All-SoCon in 1998 and 2000, and earned second-team honors in 1999. She was named to the SoCon All-Tournament Team from 1998-2000. O'Brien owns Davidson single-game records in steals and assists. She owns the school all-time marks for assists (588) and steals (368), and ranks in the top-10 in points per game, field goals made, 3-point field goals, 3-point field goal percentage, free throws and rebounds. She won the Wildcat Award for team MVP honors in 1998 and 2000 and the Rebecca Stimson award in 2000. Davidson posted a record of 61-47 during her four-year career.

CAROLYN KIRSCH, 1996-97

Carolyn Kirsch stepped up her level of play as a senior to lead the Southern Conference in scoring (16.3 ppg) and become the first Wildcat to be named SoCon Player of the Year.

The 5-11 guard from Heidelberg, Germany, was also among the league leaders in steals (2.3 spg), field goal percentage (47.7 percent) and rebounding (7.8 rpg) in 1996-97 while guiding Davidson to a then school record 15 wins. She reached the 20-point plateau eight times as a senior, including a team season-best 26-point performance in the 'Cats' 84-65 win over Western Carolina on Jan. 11, 1997.

SOPHIA ALEKSANDRAVICIUS, 2011-12

Sophia Aleksandravicius had a stellar junior campaign, leading the league in rebounding (8.9) and blocks (2.9), while ranking fourth in scoring (13.8), as she was named the SoCon Player of the Year by the coaches. She was also voted the Defender of the Year. Twice Aleksandravicius was named the player of the month during the regular season, while garnering first-team All-SoCon honors on both the coaches and media teams.

The 6-foot-5 forward from Pound Ridge, N.Y., led the Wildcats to a 22-10 record and helped the program capture its first regular season title with a school-best mark of 17-3 in the league. She finished the season scoring in double-digits in 29 games and registering 11 double-doubles.

SOPHIA ALEKSANDRAVICIUS, 2012-13 SoCon ATHLETE OF THE YEAR, 2012-13

Sophia Aleksandravicius, a three-time All-SoCon First Team pick in her career, made program history as she became the first Wildcat to earn a second Southern Conference Player of the Year honor, while also grabbing the Defender of the Year for a second straight season as she took home both awards in 2012-13. The 6-foot-5 forward led the SoCon in scoring (16.5), rebounding (9.9) and blocks (102- 2.9 per game / 10th in the nation), all career highs.

Aleksandravicius' award-winning season was not done there as she was named the SoCon Female Athlete of the Year, becoming the first female at Davidson to earn the prestigious award and the seventh Wildcat overall. In addition, the senior was honored with Davidson College's Rebecca A. Stimson Award for being the top student female-athlete.

Other accolades during her amazing senior campaign included being named the SoCon Player of the Year by CollegeSportsMadness.com and earning first-team honors. The publication named Aleksandravicius to the All Mid-Major Second Team. The senior was also a Full Court Mid-Major All-America Honorable Mention by fullcourt.com. She was a first-team SoCon All-Tournament pick after guiding Davidson to the SoCon Championship game for just the second time in program history. During the regular season, Aleksandravicius was a three-time SoCon Player of the Week honoree, and took home the league's player of the month award in January and February to give her four for her career.

It was a record-setting career for Aleksandravicius, who was a two-time SoCon Player and Defender of the Year, and a three-time All-SoCon First Team member on both the coaches and media teams. During her senior year, she set seven school records, including points (1,878), rebounds (1,143) and blocks (339), while also setting six new single-season Wildcat records. The senior is the only women's player, and just the third basketball player at Davidson, to have over 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career.

The forward also set a single-game blocks record with 10 on her way to collecting the program's first triple-double, Feb. 16, with 20 points, 10 rebounds and 10 blocks in home win vs. Furman.

Aleksandravicius put her name among the greats in the SoCon women's basketball record book during her four years. She finished ranked in the top-10 all-time in: points (10th), scoring (14.8- 9th), field goals (5th), field goal attempts (4th), free throws (9th), free throw attempts (10th), rebounding (4th) and blocks (10- 2nd-best single game, 102- 2nd-best in single season, 339- 1st).

The senior forward wrapped up her stellar career by scoring in double digits 104 times, including 28 20-point outings and a pair of 30-point games. Aleksandravicius registered 56 double-digit rebounding games during her career, with 22 of those coming in the 2012-13 season.

Aleksandravicius led Davidson to its second straight postseason appearance, and third overall, with a trip to the 2013 Women's NIT, where the Wildcats netted the program's first postseason victory. The senior tallied her 50th career double-double, and 20th of the season, with 27 points and 11 rebounds in guiding the 'Cats to a first-round win at Old Dominion, March 21. Her 20 double-doubles ranked 11th in the nation during the season.

The 2006-07 season for the Davidson women's basketball team will go down as one of the best, if not the best ever, in program history.

Twenty-three wins. A 10-game winning streak. A nine-game road winning streak. Eleven road wins in all. Ten home wins. Those were just a few of the many accomplishments that either set a new school record or tied one.

For all their hard work, Davidson put an exclamation point on their season when they found out Monday, Mar. 12, 2007 they would continue their historic season with the team's first-ever trip to postseason play when it earned an at-large bid to the Women's National Invitational Tournament.

It marked the first time ever the women's team had earned a postseason bid. They were part of WNIT history as for the first time, each of the nation's 31 conferences will be represented in the WNIT. The tournament expanded to 48 teams this year to accommodate an automatic berth for each of the conferences.

Davidson's opponent in its first trip to postseason play was the UAB Blazers. The two schools had faced each other just once, back on Dec. 16, 2001.

Playing in their first-ever postseason game, the senior trio of Jessica Mitchell, Brynn Kelly, and Tia Washington looked to give the Wildcats their first career postseason win. Mitchell did all she could to keep the Wildcats within striking distance, draining a career-high 24 points by tying her career-best with nine field goals made and hit four of the Wildcats' 10 three-pointers. Three of her four three-balls came in the second half, including one with 14 seconds on the clock to bring the Wildcats within one, 78-77. She also matched her season-high with seven assists.

Kelly was the only other 'Cat in double figures as she registered her fourth career double-double on 12 points and 11 rebounds. Davidson, as a team, hauled in a game-high 46 boards to win the rebounding margin, 46-39.

Trailing by 11 (67-56) with 8:24 left in the game, Davidson started its rally with a three-pointer from Mitchell on the right wing. The shot sparked a 16-5 run over the next five and a half minutes that saw the Wildcats knot things up at 72-all on yet another three-pointer, this time from freshman Alex Thompson on the left side. Junior Danielle Hemerka also canned back-to-back shots from downtown in the run and finished the contest with eight points, four boards and three assists.

A quick 5-0 run, three of the points coming from the Blazers' Diamond Rogers, gave UAB back the lead at 77-72 with just 36 seconds on the clock.

Davidson charged right back, getting a fade-away jumper by sophomore Kelly Gassie and Mitchell's three-pointer that closed the gap to one (78-77). Rogers and Britney Jones sealed the Wildcats' hopes though, hitting three of four free throws in the closing seconds and Mitchell's last-second three-pointer was off target for the final score of 81-77.

The Wildcats did not get many calls their way all evening as the fouls were 20-

Senior Brynn Kelly capped off her final game in a Wildcat uniform by recording her fourth double-double.

11 and UAB stepped to the charity stripe 25 times (16-for-25) compared to Davidson's six trips (5-for-6).

Davidson used the hot hand of Mitchell in the first half to jump out to an early 11-10 advantage. Mitchell was perfect in the first half, draining all five of her shots from the field, including her only shot from downtown, and had two free throws for 13-first half points. The Wildcats as a team started the contest hitting eight of their first 12 shots, including two three-pointers. They finished the half nailing 15-of-29 shots from the floor for 51.7 percent and closed out the game shooting 44.9 percent.

UAB grabbed the lead back, 12-11, on the next possession on a layup from Shi-mena Moore and maintained at least a one-point lead all the way into halftime for a score of 39-36.

Sophomore Mercedes Robinson assisted off the bench during the Wildcats' second-half comeback with all eight her points coming in the second period. She also hauled in nine rebounds and picked up one of Davidson's season-high five blocks.

The Davidson women's basketball team made a return trip to the women's NIT after a record-setting 2011-12 campaign. The Wildcats won their first regular season Southern Conference title with a school-best mark of 17-3, earning the automatic bid into the WNIT. The squad finished with 22 wins, one off the school record, while they rattled off a nine-game winning streak, again one off the 10-game set by the 2006-07 team that made the program's first postseason bid. The Wildcats also set a bench mark with a 12-1 home record at Belk Arena, including a record 9-1 record vs. the SoCon.

The 'Cats took their 22-9 record to Harrisonburg, Va., on Thursday, March 15, for a first-round matchup against the Dukes. It was the first-ever matchup against both teams.

James Madison entered the WNIT with a 24-7 record after reaching the semifinals of the Colonial Athletic Association Tournament. It marked only the second time since 2005 that the Dukes had not advanced to the championship game after winning the last two CAA Championships.

Junior Sophia Aleksandravicius, the SoCon Player of the Year as voted on by the coaches, scored a season-best 25 points and Davidson forced 22 turnovers, but was unable to overcome a 19-7 second-half run by James Madison in falling 64-49 in the Calin after she leaked out on the break gave the 'Cats a 29-28 advantage with 14:13 to go. It would be the only lead Davidson had for the game.

JMU would score a quick six points and then continue their run to 10-2 for a 38-31 advantage. The spurt continued all the way out to 19-7 giving the Dukes the lead for good at 47-36 with under five minutes to go.

Lauren Whitehurst led the rally with eight of her 14 total points in the run. The Dukes overall had three reach double figures with Tarik Hislop scoring 15 points and Kirby Burkholder 11, nine of them on treys.

The lead was cut to nine at 49-40 on a layup by Aleksandravicius with 4:23 remaining, but four straight free throws by Hislop pushed the lead back to double digits and the Wildcats got no closer than 10 the rest of the way.

Despite starting the game just 3-for-16 from the field, Davidson stayed within striking distance thanks to its solid defense. The Wildcats forced nine turnovers early and trailed just 7-6 after a driving layin by Sarah Davis.

It became 12-6 after the Dukes' Hislop hit a short jumper, forcing Davidson to call a timeout. The Wildcats though, came right back with two quick buckets from Laura Murray and Aleksandravicius. The 'Cats leading scorer Murray, who came in averaging just under 15 points, was held to seven points for the game.

Aleksandravicius sparked a mini 8-2 run when she rattled off six straight points and Davidson cut a seven-point Duke lead down to one, 21-20, on a Barbara Sitton fastbreak layup off a Murray steal. Davidson ended up causing 14 first-half turnovers and pocketing three steals.

JMU hit its third three-ball of the half for a 24-20 score at the break.

first round of the Women's NIT.

Davidson concluded its season at 22-10, one win away from the school-record, as it made its second-ever postseason appearance. James Madison (25-7) moves on and will play Wake Forest in the second round.

Aleksandravicius finished with 25 points, 17 of them in the second-half when she kept the Wildcats in the game. She added nine rebounds, two assists and two blocks.

Down 24-20 at the break, the junior got Davidson's offense rolling by scoring seven straight points to open the new stanza, and a fastbreak bucket by Jasmine

POSTSEASON HISTORY

The Davidson women's basketball team made it back-to-back postseason years with a return trip to the women's NIT after a very strong 2012-13 campaign.

The Wildcats entered the first round of the tournament fresh off reaching the Southern Conference title game and were looking to make history with their first-ever postseason win.

Senior Sophia Aleksandravicius led the charge, dominating in the paint with her 20th double-double to pace four Wildcats in double figures and Davidson won the program's first postseason game with an 82-73 victory on the road at Old Dominion in the first round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament Thursday evening at the Ted Constant Convocation Center.

The two-time Southern Conference Player of the Year Aleksandravicius had 27 points and pulled in 11 rebounds for her 50th career double-double. She went a career-best 11-for-14 from the charity stripe as Davidson hit 20 shots at the line.

Laura Murray (16), Dakota Dukes (season-best tying 15) and Jasmine Calin (season-high 10) also registered double figures in points as Davidson moved to 22-12 on the season.

Barbara Sitton for the second game in a row hauled in double figures in rebounds, pulling in a career-best 11 on the defensive end. She also dished out seven assists and dravicius and Calin had 11 and eight points, respectively, in the half.

Dukes helped push the lead out 16 (51-35) with six points in the first four minutes of the second half. An Aleksandravicius' and-one play two minutes later gave the Wildcats its biggest lead of the game at 58-40 when she swished home the free throw.

Old Dominion went on a 15-7 run to cut the deficit to 10 (65-55) with 7:48 on the clock. Kelley scored the final seven points of the spurt.

Davidson came right back, pushing its lead out to 74-59 on a pair of free throws from Katrina Chiemeka with 4:06 left and did not allow the lead to slip below 11 the rest of the way until the final score.

GAME NOTES: Davidson improved to 6-8 vs. non-conference foes this year ... the 22 wins tie last year's total and are second-most in school history ... Davidson scored 44 points in the paint ... Aleksandravicius crossed the 100-block mark with a pair of swats, giving her a personal-best 101 ... she holds seven career all-time records at Davidson ... her 20-point outing was the 28th of her career.

pocketed four steals.

Davidson as a team pulled in a season-high 57 rebounds, including a season-best 20 on the offensive glass. It also assisted on 21 of its 29 field goals.

ODU (19-12) put three players in double digits, led by Shae Kelley's 21 points. Stephanie Gardner had 15 and Galaisha Goodhope scored 11. The Monarchs, who had not played in 18 days, shot 40.8 percent for the game.

Davidson took control of the contest with a 17-4 run to close the first half that turned a 25-24 deficit with 9:44 remaining into a 41-29 lead at the break. Aleksan-

Jasmine Calin (top) and Dakota Dukes (top on the right) combined for 25 points, while Barbara Sitton filled the stat sheet with a career-high 11 rebounds to go with seven dimes and four steals in Davidson's win at Old Dominion.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

After their historic first round win, Davidson was looking for win number two in the women's NIT second round. Their opponent, cross-county rival Charlotte 49ers.

The Wildcats battled all the way to the end against its cross-county rival, but Charlotte pulled away with a 19-8 run in the final six minutes to capture a 72-60 victory in the second round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament Sunday afternoon at Halton Arena.

Davidson completed its outstanding season at 22-13, which included earning the program's first postseason win in the first round of the WNIT. Charlotte moved to 26-5 and advances to the third round of the WNIT to face the winner of the Florida/Winthrop contest.

Up 53-52, Charlotte broke free from Davidson by scoring 10 of the next 13 points during a five-minute stretch to give itself a 10-point lead with 1:10 remaining. Jennifer Hailey scored seven of those points for the 49ers on her way to a game-high 22 points.

A free throw by Sophia Aleksandravicius made it 65-56 with 59 ticks left, but the 49ers sealed up with the win by going 7-for-8 at the charity stripe in the last minute, while the Wildcats were unable to convert on offense, turning the ball over three times in the last 1:10.

Aleksandravicius capped off her amazing four-year Wildcat career with 18 points and five rebounds. The two-time SoCon Player of the Year finished her career setting seven all-time school records, including points (1,878), rebounds (1,143) and blocks (339).

Fellow senior Jasmine Calin had one of her best games of the season, scoring a season-high 12 points, nine of them coming in the first half. Hannah Early gave Davidson another spark off the bench scoring 13 points.

Senior Barbara Sitton had four points, five rebounds, four assists and three steals in her last game, while Katrin Chiemeka had two points on a pair of free throws.

Charlotte had three other players join Hailey in double figures. Hillary Sigmon and Jai Forney finished with 13 apiece, while Ny Hammonds scored 12 points and pulled in a game-high tying nine rebounds.

The 49ers shot 47.1 percent from the floor, including 50 percent in the second half, while Davidson was at 37.1 percent. Charlotte held a 43-31 edge on the boards, with both teams each pulling in 15 offensive rebounds.

The Wildcats erased a four-point halftime deficit with an 11-6 run, capped off by an and-one play from Aleksandravicius to start the second half and they had their second lead of the game at 38-37. Charlotte countered though by breaking up a 40-all tie a few minutes later with a quick six for a 46-40 advantage at 11:02 on the clock.

The 'Cats never backed down, getting another three-point play from Calin to make it 50-49 and then when the 49ers had pushed its lead to 53-49, Early struck for a deep trey on the left wing to make it 53-52 with 6:47 left in the game.

Davidson stayed close after the opening tip, getting a driving layup on the baseline by Sitton to make it 8-7. Two triples by Hillary Sigmon doubled the 'Cats up later though at 20-10 with 12:04 left in the first half.

Five straight points, including a three-point play from Calin, cut the deficit in half a few minutes later.

Then down 28-17 after a pair of Hailey free throws, part of her 13 first-half points, the 'Cats switched to a zone-defense and charged back with a 10-0 run. Sparking the run was six straight points from Early to get within one at 28-27 and under a minute to go. Charlotte took away a little of the momentum with the final three points to end the half up 31-27.

GAME NOTES: The 22 wins tied last year's total and are the second-most in school history ... Davidson dropped its fourth straight to Charlotte in the all-time series.

Laura Murray '14 left Davidson as the all-time scoring leader with 1,880 points, setting the mark on her final career shot in the SoCon Championship game. A three-time All-SoCon First Team pick, Murray also set three other all-time career records, while setting three single-season marks, including points with 617 her senior year.

Sarah Womack '80 led the team in scoring all four years at Davidson.

She tallied a career-high 32 points against Converse on Dec. 4, 1979.

Kristen Ferrucci '96 improved her shooting percentage every year she was on the squad. Her 55.4 percent field goal accuracy is tops in program history.

Sophia Aleksandravicius '13 was one of the best players in program history, setting seven all-time records as well as five single-season records during her career. She was a two-time SoCon Player and Defender of the Year, 2012 & 2013. Aleksandravicius is only the third basketball player (men or women) at Davidson to collect over 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career.
