

A Record Setting Year in 2019

The 2019 season was a winning one for the Wildcats as they finished at .500 or better for the first time since 2011 with an 8-8-3 mark. The eight wins were also the most since collecting nine during that 2011 campaign.

There were several other highlights, including...

- School record for most A-10 Player of the Week honors (6)
- School record with eight straight shutouts
- School record for highest A-10 conference finish
- Longest unbeaten streak (6-0-2 in eight games) since 2009
- No. 2 defense in the A-10
- Mary Grace Bunch: No. 13 in the country and No. 2 in the A-10 for save percentage (87.5%)
- Mary Grace Bunch: No. 23 in the country and No. 2 in the A-10 for GAA
- Mary Grace Bunch: Named to the A-10 All-Second Team
- Most shutouts since 2010 (9)

Bunch Named to W. Soccer A-10 All-Second Team

Sophomore goalkeeper Mary Grace Bunch capped off her stellar second year by representing Davidson in earning a spot on the 2019 Atlantic 10 Women's Soccer All-Second Team. Bunch becomes the first Wildcat to earn a spot on one of the two all-conference teams, while they have had a player on the all-academic team three times.

The sophomore from Raleigh, N.C., set several personal bests during her sophomore campaign. Bunch was a two-time A-10 Defender of the Week during the season, earning it on back-to-back weeks, Sept. 23 & 30.

The goalkeeper started eight of her 11 games played, allowing just six goals in over 950 minutes of action for a 0.57 goals against average, which ranked second in the A-10. Bunch had career highs in saves (42, team best & top-10 in league) and save percentage (.875, 2nd in A-10) as well as shutouts (4.5, top-5 in league). She earned a personal-best 10 saves in a double-overtime draw vs. VCU at home, capping off a stretch of picking up 27 saves in a four-game span.

Davidson Closes Out Home Slate with 1-1 Tie vs. VCU

Playing in their final home game of the season, the Davidson women's soccer team battled to a 1-1 draw against visiting VCU on a cold Thursday night.

Davidson did not waste anytime getting on the board first, scoring 21 seconds in off a rebound goal from Sabine Chandler from a shot off the foot of Gretchen Pearson. Chandler registered her team-leading fifth goal (personal-best) and pushed her points total to 11, also a team best. Pearson's assist gave her a team-high four, which is a personal best.

The score remained 1-0 until VCU tied it in the 36th minute when Susanna Friedrichs knocked in a loose ball in the goal box. The Rams pressured the 'Cats defense all evening, firing off a game-high 21 shots and putting 11 of those shots on goal.

Goalkeeper Mary Grace Bunch had several big stops on her way to a new career high of 10 saves in all 110 minutes. She came up with three of those saves in the second overtime to keep things tied up.

The Wildcats finished their home slate of games this year 4-3-3 and earned their first point in the all-time series vs. the Rams.

Dayton Erases Deficit, Halts Wildcats' Unbeaten Streak, 3-2

Davidson grabbed an early lead on the road in the first half, but Dayton scored three unanswered goals in a 17-minute span to take a 3-2 comeback win over the Wildcats, snapping their eight-game unbeaten streak Sunday afternoon.

The Wildcats dropped their first league game and first game overall since a setback to Western Carolina, Sept. 5. Their eight-game unbeaten streak (6-0-2) was the longest since 2009.

Sabine Chandler and Seeley Yoo helped the 'Cats to a 2-0 lead at the break, before the Flyers answered in the second half.

Chandler Keeps Wildcats' Unbeaten Streak Intact with OT Game-Winner

game-winning goal in overtime to help send Davidson to a 1-0 win on the road Thursday evening at Rhode Island.

The Wildcats' set a new school record with their eighth straight shutout, topping the seven in a row by the 1999 team, and kept their overall unbeaten streak intact at eight games (6-0-2), which is the longest since 2009. The win also was the 'Cats' third straight on the road.

For Chandler, it was her first game-winner of the season and third goal overall as she beat the Rhode Island keeper to a free ball for the winning score at the 97:01 mark.

The shutout is Davidson's eighth in a row and ninth overall on the year. It was playing in overtime for the second consecutive game and fourth time overall this year, moving to 1-1-2.

Second Week in a Row, Bunch & Braemer Win A-10 Weekly Honors

For the second week in a row, the duo of sophomore goalkeeper Mary Grace Bunch and forward Hailey Braemer claimed Atlantic 10 Women's Soccer Defender and Rookie of the Week awards.

Davidson has won six weekly honors this season. Bunch and Braemer again played roles in last week's pair of shutouts at home against Duquesne (2-0) and St. Bonaventure (0-0), which helped keep the Wildcats' unbeaten streak intact at 5-0-2 through the past seven games.

Reigning A-10 Defender of the Week Bunch earned her third and fourth shutouts of the season last week to go with six saves and a save percentage of 1.000 in 200 minutes.

Braemer, the reigning A-10 Rookie of the Week, assisted on the game-winner in a 2-0 win against the Dukes at home. The Nashville, Tenn., native sent a perfect ball into the middle of the box, finding Cameron France for her second assist on the season and six points overall.

Davidson Caps Off Homestand With Scoreless Draw vs. Bonnies

Wrapping up a four-game homestand, Davidson kept its clean slate intact with a scoreless draw against visiting St. Bonaventure on a very hot Sunday afternoon in women's soccer inside Alumni Stadium.

The Wildcats went 2-0-2 during their homestand and pushed their season-best unbeaten streak to seven games (5-0-2) with the draw. They also kept their home unbeaten streak intact at 3-0-2.

The unbeaten streak is Davidson's longest since it rattled off seven straight wins during the 2007 campaign.

Davidson dominated the shot count at 24-4, putting 12 of those shots on goal. The 24 shots were a season-high, besting its previous mark of 21 vs. VMI.

Between the pipes, Mary Grace Bunch tallied her fourth straight shutout with one save on the day to improve to 2-0-2.

Unbeaten Streak Pushed to Six, 'Cats Blank Duquesne 2-0

Davidson maintained its unbeaten streak, pushing it to six games with its sixth straight shutout in a 2-0 win Thursday night vs. Duquesne.

The Wildcats ran its unbeaten streak to 5-0-1 in the last six games with the victory and won its first two league games for the first time since joining the A-10. They also ran their home record to 4-2-1, having gone 3-0-1 the last four games.

Senior Cameron France knocked in the game-winner very early in the game and Keeley Copper added an insurance goal late to seal the win.

Freshman Hailey Braemer was credited with an assist on France's goal, while Mary Grace Bunch (five saves) and her defensive teammates took care of the rest to earn the shutout.

Bunch & Braemer Claim A-10 Weekly W. Soccer Awards

After leading Davidson to a pair of shutouts last week, the duo of sophomore goalkeeper Mary Grace Bunch and forward Hailey Braemer were named the Atlantic 10 Defender and Rookie of the Week, Sept. 23.

The sophomore keeper and freshman forward played big roles in shutouts of VMI (T, 0-0) and Saint Joseph's (W, 1-0), which helped keep the Wildcats' unbeaten streak intact at 4-0-1 through the past five games.

Bunch picked up a pair of shutouts between the pipes in games against the Keydets and the Hawks to go with four saves and a save percentage of 1.000. The sophomore's two shutouts, including the 1-0 win versus the Hawks, were her first two of the year. The Raleigh, N.C., native made one save in relief of Sarah L'Hommedieu against VMI and held onto the shutout through two scoreless overtime periods. Bunch then registered three saves in Davidson's fifth straight shutout during their victory Sunday against Saint Joseph's.

Braemer had a strong week as well in helping Davidson keep the unbeaten streak alive, scoring the game-winner in the 'Cats' A-10 opening win against Saint Joseph's on Sunday. It was the Nashville, Tenn., native's first game-winner of her collegiate career and the second goal of the season.

'Cats Open A-10 Play with Impressive 1-0 Shutout of Hawks

Freshman Hailey Braemer gave Davidson an early goal and the defense took care of the rest in helping lead to a 1-0 win over Saint Joseph's in both team's Atlantic 10 women's soccer opener, Sept. 22.

The shutout was the 'Cats' fifth straight, pushing their unbeaten streak to five in a row.

Braemer scored the game-winner in the ninth minute, while goalkeeper Mary Grace Bunch finished with three saves.

Unbeaten Streak Reaches Four, 'Cats & Keydets End in a Draw

Davidson extended its unbeaten streak, coming away with a scoreless draw at home against VMI, Sept. 19. The game was the first meeting all-time vs. the Keydets.

Davidson controlled possession the majority of the game, outshooting VMI by the count of 21-4, and keepers Sarah L'Hommedieu and Mary Grace Bunch picked up a save each in helping preserve the shutout.

3rd Straight Shutout Equals Another Win for the 'Cats, 2-0

The Davidson women's soccer team nabbed its third consecutive shutout to push their winning streak to three in a row after taking home a 2-0 decision at UNC Asheville. For the second game in a row the senior pair of Cameron France and Michele Manceaux scored to lead the Wildcats. For the second game in a row, Pearson tallied an assist when she helped set up France.

Davidson Scores Second Straight Shutout Win, 3-0

Davidson won its second straight, getting goals from Cameron France, Michele Manceaux and Sophia Caruso in rolling to a 3-0 win on the road at UNCG. The Wildcats grabbed the momentum early with a goal in the sixth minute and added two more later for the win.

Davidson struck first and early with a goal off the foot of France at the 5:34 mark. Freshman Hailey Braemer was credited with her first collegiate assist on the play.

The lead was padded at the 31:05 mark on a goal from Manceaux off a cross into the middle of the box, while Gretchen Pearson and Emma Nguyen tallied assists on the goal.

The third goal was netted by the freshman Caruso off an assist from Katherine Smith in the 53rd minute.

The defense took care of the rest as goalkeeper Sarah L'Hommedieu earned the shutout and finished with five saves in 90 minutes.

Yoo, Wildcats Secure Senior Day win vs. Georgia Southern 1-0

Senior midfielder Seeley Yoo made sure it was a winning afternoon for her and her classmates as she scored the game-winner just four minutes into the game and Davidson's defense did the rest in scoring a 1-0 Senior Day win over Georgia Southern.

Yoo knocked in a cross at the 3:06 mark and the defensive backline along with goalkeeper Sarah L'Hommedieu (three saves) shut out the Eagles the rest of the way.

France tallied her first assist of the season and the fourth of her career to give her 12 total points.

The Wildcats also improved their advantage in the all-time series to 20-10-1 with the win.

Chandler, L'Hommedieu Named A-10 Players of the Week

After helping Davidson get off to a 2-0 start last week, the senior duo of Sabine Chandler and Sarah L'Hommedieu were named the Atlantic 10 Women's Soccer Player and Defender of the Week, respectively, for games played from Aug. 19-25.

Chandler had a career week, scoring two goals, including the game-winner at Winthrop, and adding an assist for five points. The senior had a personal-best three points on a goal and an assist, which helped set up the game-winning goal, in the victory against Gardner-Webb.

L'Hommedieu netted her first two wins, including the first shutout, as a Wildcat between the pipes in the two victories. A transfer from Indiana two years ago, the senior earned five saves, three of which came at Winthrop, for the week and had a 1.00 goals against average in 180 minutes.

Davidson Blanks Winthrop on the Road, 2-0

Senior Sabine Chandler capped off a stellar week by scoring late in the second half to break up a scoreless game as Davidson women's soccer earned its first shutout of the year with a 2-0 blanking of Winthrop.

Chandler netted the game-winner in the 73rd minute and assisting on the play was sophomore Alexandra Menard, who recorded her first collegiate point. Davidson was not done as the freshmen tandem of Hailey Braemer and Rachel Schleicher hooked up for their first goal and assist, respectively, in the 84th minute for a 2-0 lead.

The Wildcats started 2-0 to open the season for the first time since the start of the 2008 campaign.

'Cats Score Season-Opening 3-2 Win at Home vs. Gardner-Webb

Davidson got three goals in the first 20 minutes of action and held on to score a 3-2 victory Thursday night over Gardner-Webb in its season and home opener at Alumni Stadium.

Goals from Sabine Chandler, Sophia Caruso and Kendall Bushick led the Wildcats to their 13th all-time season-opening win and improved their record in home openers to 18-13. Chandler finished with a career-high three points, adding an assist on the game-winner.

The win also kept Davidson's unbeaten streak intact in the all-time series vs. Gardner-Webb, running its record to 9-0-0 dating back to the first meeting in 1990.

DAVIDSON MAKES PROGRAM'S 1st NCAA Tournament

2009 NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament #8 South Carolina 4, Davidson 0 November 13, 2009

COLUMBIA, S.C. — A three-goal attack in a four-minute stretch at the beginning of the second half helped second-seeded South Carolina hold off a resilient Davidson Wildcat team as the Gamecocks earned a 4-0 win in the first round of the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament on Friday evening at Stone Stadium in front of a record-crowd of 3,813.

The Gamecocks (18-3-2) advance to play Rutgers, which defeated Duke, 2-0, in the first game of the first round.

The Wildcats, who were making their first appearance in the tournament after capturing the program's fourth Southern Conference Tournament Title last weekend (Nov. 6-8), saw their season come to an end as they closed at 12-10-1. They also saw their eight-game unbeaten streak snapped.

"I'm so thrilled and proud of the team tonight and this whole season," said head coach Greg Ashton. "It's a privilege to be here and representing Davidson College for the first time in program history, and I couldn't be more proud of the team."

Davidson was down just 1-0 after playing a solid first half, but USC's team speed helped it take control of the game with three quick strikes in a four-minute stretch. All-SEC First Team pick Kayla then ended it with a rebound goal with 55:44 on the clock. In between, Sam Diaz-Matosas netted her fourth of the season and the 'Cats quickly found themselves down 4-0.

The Wildcats never stopped, continuing to pressure the Gamecocks' defense, but just never was able to get a clean look on goal. They finished with three total shots, getting two of them in the second half. They also had four corner kicks.

"USC is a very good team and I think we played fantastic the first 10 minutes of the contest, putting them back on their heels a bit," said Ashton. "We wanted to play straight up and compete with them, and I think we did a solid job of that most of the evening."

Davidson came out with all the momentum and did not look like a team making their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament, playing aggressively and it nearly paid off. The 'Cats earned two corner kicks in the first five minutes of action, but were not able to put a shot on frame as South Carolina cleared each attempt.

"Those two set plays early were nice," said Ashton. "We work on all them all season and it would have been great to get a score early, but South Carolina was able to stop those plays and start to counter our attack."

"We came out strong and I think we did frustrate them a bit early, but they were able to counter very quickly," said senior co-captain Courtney Hart (Ashland, Mass.).

South Carolina then started to take control of the possession a bit, but like last weekend at the Southern Conference Tournament, the defense and goalkeeper Jessie Baxa (Bloomfield) were nearly air tight as they held off numerous Gamecock shot attempts on goal. The defense played 227 total minutes of shutout ball over the three games, including the first 28 minutes tonight before USC put a goal in during the 29th minute.

The frontline of South Carolina worked the ball down the field with some quick passes. From there Brooke Jacobs struck a ball from 35 yards out that found the back of the net for a 1-0 Gamecock advantage.

USC ended the half with 11 shots and Baxa was there to stop five of them, including a couple of great diving saves. Baxa finished with seven saves, while senior Loring Ward (Charleston, S.C.) closed out her final career game playing the last six minutes of the contest.

"It was an unbelievable season for us," said senior Kyri Bye-Nagel (Hanau, Germany). "We seniors had never been to the SoCon finals, and to earn that chance and then win it, was awesome. As a team we knew we always could do it, we just needed a chance to put it all together, which we did this year. Then, to make the program's first NCAA Tournament, it's a great accomplishment and we have definitely set the foundations for this program."

The game marked the final contest for the Wildcats' eight seniors led by Hart, Bye-Nagel and Ward. Joining that trio was Sophie Funderburk (Wilmington, N.C.), Katharine Laco (Bethesda, Md.), Blakely Low (San Antonio, Texas), Suzanne Sittko (Greenwood Village, Colo.) and Lauren Conner (Mechanicsburg, Pa.).

Hall of Fame Members

CLAUDIA LOMBARD - 1ST WOMEN'S SOCCER PLAYER INDUCTED IN DAVIDSON HALL OF FAME

The 18th group of inductees into the Davidson Athletics Hall of Fame were honored on Jan. 20, 2006, and it was a special group for the Davidson women's soccer program. Claudia D. Lombard '96, one of four individuals to be honored that day, became the first-ever women's soccer player to be inducted.

Lombard was a standout on the women's soccer team as soon as she hit the field for the Wildcats in the fall of 1992. As a freshman, the native from Guilford, Conn. scored six goals and led the team with nine assists as the squad went 10-8-1. Lombard's nine assists at the time were a single-season record and she would go on to match her career-high in assists two other times during her four-year playing career.

The following year she was named the team MVP for the second straight year with a career-best 14 goals and again chipped in with nine assists for a career-high 37 points. Her 37 points still rank third most in a single-season. For her outstanding efforts during her sophomore campaign, Lombard became the program's first-ever player to garner a spot on the All-South Region Division I Team.

Women's soccer became a Southern Conference sport in 1994, and Lombard helped Davidson enshrine their first year in the league with a season for the ages. After scoring 11 goals and tallying 28 points, both team highs, Lombard was voted the SoCon Player of the Year as a junior to become the first Wildcat to earn the honor. She ranked second in the league in goals and assists, and led Davidson to its first SoCon Regular-Season title with a 5-1 mark in league play. Then in the SoCon Tournament, Lombard guided the Wildcats to their first tournament title with 2-0 wins over Appalachian State and Georgia Southern.

Lombard's final season saw her carry the 'Cats to yet another SoCon title as she earned tournament MVP honors. In addition, she was named to the all-conference first team after scoring eight goals, and pacing Davidson with nine assists and 25 points.

Lombard still remains atop many of the Wildcat career records. She is tied for first in scoring with 39 goals, while her 33 career assists and 111 points place her first in program history. Lombard is also tied for most goals in a game with four, which she accomplished against Louisville on Oct. 17, 1993. Her three assists in a single-game are tied for first and her eight points she recorded against Louisville, are second most in a single-game.

ALLISON NOZNESKY - 2ND WOMEN'S SOCCER PLAYER INDUCTED IN DAVIDSON HALL OF FAME

The 22nd group of inductees into the Davidson Athletics Hall of Fame were honored on Jan. 29, 2011, and the Davidson women's soccer program saw it place a second player into the school's hall of fame. Allison Noznesky Clark '98, was one of four individuals to be honored that day.

In her four-year career, Allison Noznesky (1994-97) helped lead the 'Cats to three consecutive Southern Conference Tournament titles. She ranks second on the school's career record lists in minutes played (5900:19), saves (399), goals against average (1.40) and shutouts (18.5). Noznesky is tops on the single-season record list for minutes played (2100:00) and saves (173) and earned Southern Conference Player of the Year honors for the Wildcats in 1996 after she and her teammates won both the SoCon regular-season title and the league tournament championship. The success of the 1996 team was due in large part to Noznesky's impressive performance in the net as she led the conference in goals against average at 1.05, allowing just 22 goals in 19 contests. Noznesky broke out in her sophomore campaign in 1995, compiling 117 saves and a 1.16 goals against average, both ranking in the top-five of the single-season books, while starting all 22 games in goal. She picked up seven shutouts, which ranks fourth in the single-season record books.

AMY KANOFF - 3RD WOMEN'S SOCCER PLAYER INDUCTED IN DAVIDSON HALL OF FAME

The 25th group of inductees into the Davidson Athletics Hall of Fame were honored on Feb. 7, 2015, and the Davidson women's soccer program saw it place a third player into the school's hall of fame. Amy Kanoff Schumacher '98, was one of five individuals to be honored that day.

Kanoff was a member of one of the best three-year runs in women's soccer program history from 1994-96. She assisted the Wildcats to two regular-season Southern Conference titles and the program's only three tournament titles during that time span, starting 82 of her 85 games.

One of the Wildcats' main contributors on offense during her playing career, Kanoff compiled 21 goals to go along with 26 assists, which placed her second all-time in the Wildcat record books at the time. Three times she finished first or second on the team in assists, including a career-high 10 during her junior season, which ranks first in the single-season record books.

Kanoff burst onto the scene during her freshman season in 1994, finishing second on the team with nine goals and 23 points in guiding the Wildcats to the first of three straight SoCon tournament titles and earning all-tournament team honors after scoring a goal in the championship game. Kanoff is one of five Wildcats in the program's 26-year history to twice be named to the SoCon All-Tournament team as she also earned a nod in 1995. In Davidson's championship run that year, the Wildcat midfielder scored two goals and assisted on two others in wins over Georgia Southern and Furman.

The '95 season also saw Kanoff record the second-most points in a single game in school history with eight vs. Georgia Southern, Oct. 19. During the 1996 campaign, Kanoff finished seventh in the league with 18 points as Davidson went 7-1-0 to capture the regular season conference title. She added 10 assists, which paced the team and was good for second-best in the SoCon.

KARA KOEHRN - 4TH WOMEN'S SOCCER PLAYER INDUCTED IN DAVIDSON HALL OF FAME

It was announced Oct. 9, 2019 that Kara Koehn would join four other former Wildcat greats as part of the 28th induction class into the Davidson Athletics Hall of Fame. She became the fourth member of the women's soccer program to earn the distinguished honor.

Koehn left the program as one of its top players all-time. She shares the record for career goals (39) and the single-season mark (19), which she accomplished during an outstanding senior year. She finished her career ranked third overall in total points with 91.

She is one of just three players to be named Southern Conference Player of the Year, joining Wildcat hall of famers Claudia Lombard and Allison Noznesky. A four-time all-league pick, Koehn was also selected to the Soccer Buzz All-Region Team after helping Davidson achieve its highest-ever regional ranking in 2005. The National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) named Koehn to its all-region third team in 2005 as well.

Also outstanding in the classroom, the biology major earned a spot on the NSCAA/adidas Scholar All-America Second Team. On top of earning numerous postseason hardware, Koehn led the Wildcats to an undefeated league record (9-0-1) in 2005, while earning an individual top-10 national ranking for goals per game (0.90).

SOCON PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Claudia Lombard, 1994

Claudia Lombard (1992-95) earned Davidson's first Player of the Year award in 1994 after leading the 'Cats to their first-ever Southern Conference Tournament title. She earned first-team all-conference honors twice for her performances as a junior and a senior. In 1994, Lombard ranked second in the conference with 11 goals, tallying 28 points during the season.

Lombard's senior season was equally dominant as she led the Wildcats to repeat as tournament champions, earning tourney MVP honors in 1995 with three goals. The forward ranks first in every career scoring category in the Davidson record books with 39 goals, 33 assists and 111 points. Lombard also ranks among the top five in each of the Wildcats' single-game scoring categories, including first in goals with four in one game.

Allison Noznesky, 1996

Allison Noznesky (1994-97) earned Southern Conference Player of the Year honors for the Wildcats in 1996.

During the '96 campaign, Noznesky and her teammates won both the SoCon regular-season title and league tournament championship. The success of the 1996 team was due in large part to Noznesky's impressive performance in the net when she led the conference in goals against average at 1.16, allowing just 22 goals in 19 contests.

Noznesky also helped lead the 'Cats to three consecutive conference tournament titles during her career. She ranks in the school's career record lists in minutes played (5900:19), saves (399), goals against average (1.40) and shutouts (17). Noznesky also ranks first for minutes played (2100:00) and saves (173) in a single season.

Kara Koehn, 2005

Kara Koehn (2002-2005) became the third and most recent Wildcat to earn the SoCon Player of the Year honors when she had one of the best individual seasons in school history as a senior in 2005. A four-time all-league pick, Koehn tied Davidson's single-season goal record of 19 and matched the career goal record of 39 during her senior campaign. Besides garnering the SoCon's top honor, the forward was also selected to the Soccer Buzz All-Region Second Team after helping Davidson achieve its highest-ever regional ranking in 2005.

The National Soccer Coaches Association of America named Koehn to its all-region third team, an honor that no other women's soccer player at Davidson had ever received. Also outstanding in the classroom, the biology major earned a spot on the NSCAA/adidas Scholar All-America Second Team.

On top of earning numerous postseason hardware, Koehn led the Wildcats to an undefeated league record (9-0-1) while earning an individual top-10 national ranking for goals per game with 0.90.

Kara Koehn finished her career tied for most goals in a single-season (19) and matched the career goal record of 39.

Like Haskell, Ginny Dye also excelled both on the field and in the classroom. She earned NSCAA Scholar-Athlete All-American honors in 1999. On the field, Dye was a four-time all-conference pick from 1996-99.

Heather Wineberg (1992-95) ranks among the top five all-time in career goals, assists and points.
